Sunday Reflection

"Before the cock crows twice you will deny me three times." Mk 14:30

The readings for Passion Sunday contain all the drama and tragedy and victory of the events we celebrate during Holy Week, from the triumphant procession into Jerusalem, through Christ's betrayal, His bitter Passion, and finally, His death on the cross. The Church brings us into that great drama in a powerful way in the Mass of Palm Sunday. Beginning with the procession into the Church holding blessed palms and singing God's praises, the congregation enters into the story. In the dramatic reading of the Gospel, we play the role of the crowds, just as we often do in our own lives: adoring Jesus at one moment and condemning Him the next; promising to remain faithful one day and abandoning our Lord the next..

My heart breaks to say the words, "Crucify Him!" on Passion Sunday, but even more when I realize how many times I have crucified Jesus by my own sins. I have abandoned Him and denied Him more times than I care to remember. I am not worthy to be called a child of God. But thankfully, God does not require me to be worthy.. Instead, the greatest sinners are promised the greatest mercy, as Paul tells us, "Where sin abounds, grace abounds even more" (Rom 5:20)..

The Gospel story of Peter's denial of Christ is cause for great hope. Even Peter, for whom Christ prayed, denied Him. But what makes Peter's betrayal less than the betrayal of Judas is his repentance and trust. Realizing that he has failed Jesus, Peter weeps bitterly, yet he trusts in the mercy of God to be greater than his human failings and sins. After the resurrection, Peter will reaffirm his love three times as he once denied it three times when Jesus asks, "Simon... do you love me more than these?" (Jn 21:15).

All of us will fail Jesus sometime in our lives. But never despair - the mercy of God is bigger than all our sins. If ever you fail, turn back, repent, and trust Jesus. Go to Him in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. His is waiting for you, His Beloved, to affirm your love for Him and receive His mercy.

Peace and Justice Reflection

Mary, a Beacon to Light the Way
Joan Chittister, OSB
April 14, 2019

In Lent, we learn that life is not a straight road; it requires constant reflection, total commitment to a Gospel that leads to the cross. The rough parts of life's roads all make us aware that a life of integrity is a life of contest, of struggle. It is a life lived with Jesus, the prophet, and all the challenges and trials that designation implies for our own discipleship.

Most of all, Lent is a road that cries for a companion to light the way, to hold us up, to prod us on. We need the wisdom of the one who herself walked that road with Jesus and never faltered in the process. We look to Mary the mother of Jesus, the one who was still there at the end as we, too, hope to be. We need Mary to lead us through the dark and dangerous places of all life's changes. We need Mary who lived life as it came to her with no more surety than we have but who, regardless, went on in faith.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

Pope Francis said, "Jesus Christ conferred power upon Peter, but what sort of power was it? Jesus' three questions to Peter about love are followed by three commands: feed my lambs, feed my sheep. Let us never forget that authentic power is service, and that the Pope too, when exercising power, must enter ever more fully into that service which has its radiant culmination on the Cross." The Spiritual Exercises teach us how to discern what service God might be calling us to. We learn through prayer what our calling is.

Our next group meeting will be Monday, April 22, 6:30 – 8 p.m., in the Holy Spirit Parish Activity Center, Kennewick. For more information, please see our website, <https://spiritual-exercises.com>

Benedictine Spirituality: Our small group meets on the third Thursday of the month, this time on April 18 at noon in the parish library. We read and reflect upon the Holy Rule and commentary, and conclude with liturgical prayer. We welcome you as Christ! For more information, contact Joyce at 375-1308.

Franciscan Spirituality

Is Christ calling you to explore the Secular Franciscan life? We'd be happy to meet with you and to share about our Franciscan journey. Contact Bob Fitzsimmons at bobfitzofs@gmail.com, www.tcfran.org, or 521-9387.

Cursillo News: For information about Cursillo, contact Carl Zeamer at carlzeamer@gmail.com or 943-9991.

Carmelite Corner

Meditate with the Church on Ezekiel 33:10b, 11a taken from Monday Midmorning Office of Holy Week:

"Our crimes and our sins weigh us down; we are rotting away because of them. How can we survive? As I live, says the Lord God, I swear I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked man, but rather in the wicked man's conversion, that he may live."

Reflect on the following portion of the Preface for Palm Sunday:

For, though innocent, he suffered willingly for sinners and accepted unjust condemnation to save the guilty. His death has washed away our sins, and his Resurrection has purchased our justification.
