Sunday Reflection

"Jesus said... "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." ...He breathed on them and said... "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

What a beautiful reading for Divine Mercy Sunday. Jesus, who suffered and died to win forgiveness for our sins, gives His Apostles – the bishops and priests chosen to lead His Church – the authority to forgive sin. With the Holy Spirit to guide them, He sends them out to bring His Divine Mercy to the world.

Yet many Christians reject the authority of the Church to forgive sin, refusing to consider confessing their sins to a priest. Even Catholics often fail to take advantage of this precious gift, neglecting the Sacrament of Reconciliation. But if we truly understood the gifts the Lord desires to pour out on the world through this Sacrament, the lines at the confessional would stretch out the door of every Catholic Church every Saturday afternoon.

Jesus's heart must break when we reject the healing graces He longs to give us. In order to once again call us back to Him, Jesus gave St. Faustina a series of messages concerning His Divine Mercy. Jesus asked Faustina to have an image painted, showing rays of blood and water flowing from His pierced heart, with the caption "Jesus, I trust in You." Through these messages, Jesus implored a sinful world to turn back to Him now, in this time of mercy. He promises to forgive all our sins, no matter how grave, if only we go to Him in confession and receive the Eucharist on Divine Mercy Sunday.

These messages, recorded in St. Faustina's diary, "Divine Mercy in My Soul," tell of the abundant mercy of Christ, but they also contain a warning. Jesus asks Faustina to "...tell souls about this great mercy of mine, because that awful day, the day of My justice, is near" (Diary 965). Jesus doesn't want us to wait, but to turn to Him now.

Is there anything you have been fearful to confess? Don't be afraid, but trust in Jesus. Don't neglect to ask His forgiveness in this beautiful time of mercy.

Welcome to those received into the church at the Easter Vigil!

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

During the Easter Season, people making the Exercises of St. Ignatius are reflecting on, and learning how to love like God. They consider how limitless are the blessings given to us through God's love, and are challenged to hold nothing back from God. Ignatius gave us this prayer: "Take, Lord, my liberty, my memory, my understanding, my entire will – all that I have and call my own. You have given it all to me. To you, Lord, I return it. Everything is yours; do with it what you will. Give me only your love and your grace. That is enough for me." Try praying this prayer yourself. It will change your life. Wishing you a most blessed Easter season!

For this year's SEEL participants and alums, our next group meeting will be Saturday, April 14 from 9:30 a.m. to noon. The theme will be the Resurrection. For more information on Ignatian Spirituality, please visit <https://www.facebook.com/IgnatianspiritualityNW/> Para español, llame a Cesar at 942-1050.

Evening prayers for peace are said in the chapel on Thursdays at 5:30 p.m. Prayers from the breviary are led by members of the Social Justice and Peace Committee. In a world rampant with violence, Pope Francis calls us to follow the nonviolent way of Jesus. Can you spare a half-hour before dinner?

Franciscan Spirituality: Holy Trinity Fraternity is a local community of Secular Franciscans in the Tri-Cities and nearby areas in Washington State and Idaho. For more information, visit www.tcfran.org.

Carmelite Corner

Meditate with the Church on 1 Peter 2:9-10 taken from Office of Evening Prayer I, Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday):

"You are 'a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people he claims for his own to proclaim the glorious works' of the One who called you from darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were no people, but now you are God's people; once there was no mercy for you, but now you have found mercy."

Reflect on the following portion of Preface II of Easter: Through him the children of light rise to eternal life and the halls of the heavenly Kingdom are thrown open to the faithful; for his Death is our ransom from death, and in his rising the life of all has risen.
