Sunday Reflection

"...whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." Mk 3:35

In today's Gospel, we hear that some of Jesus's relatives thought He had lost His mind. His words and actions seemed unbelievable to those that thought they knew Him. At the same time, His powerful works amazed some in the crowd while drawing sharp criticism from the scribes and those who fail to recognize the source of His power. Jesus strongly rebukes those who confuse God's power with an evil spirit. Only by remaining close to God and obedient to Him will we be able to recognize God's presence among us.

The story of the unbelieving relatives and scribes is connected to another little story about the arrival of Jesus's mother and His closest relatives. Upon hearing they are waiting outside to see Him, Jesus takes the opportunity to teach His listeners that obedience to God's will is more important than family relationships, saying "Who are my mother and my brothers?"

Some may take this passage as a criticism of Mary, His mother, but Jesus is pointing out that it is not just her physical motherhood, but her obedience to God that bonds Him so closely to her. By virtue of her "Yes" to God, Mary is first in our family of faith, bestowed on us all as a spiritual mother.

If you ever feel alone in your faith, abandoned by those who should know you best, if you hear relatives gossip about you, rolling their eyes and murmuring that you may have taken the whole religion thing a bit too far, remember to turn to your spiritual mother Mary, to Jesus your brother, to God your Father, and to all your countless brothers and sisters in faith, to find strength for the journey and a family that will never fail you.

Christ the King Catholic School News

Part Time Positions Open: Christ the King Catholic School has openings for a PE teacher and a nurse/health room person. Please call the school office at 946-6158 for more information.

As we come to the end of another school year, I want to thank the parish for the continued support and prayers for our students, staff, and families. We have a strong group of eighth grade graduates who are prepared to show the world what a CKCS graduate knows and is able to achieve. The best proof to our claim of academic excellence and social justice is in what our students are able to do outside of the classroom. This year, our students took home several honors and awards earned at the state science fair, excelled in Mathematics competitions and ranked high in the national Latin exam. As part of our Virtue-Based Restorative Discipline program, we recognized hundreds of students for putting the virtues of love, faith, hope, prudence, justice, temperance, fortitude, generosity, humility, and meekness in action. Through our focus on virtues and our service projects, our children are learning the Biblical call to serve others. CKCS students supported St. Vincent de Paul society through our canned food drive and the Mini Vinnies student volunteers. Other service projects included raking leaves for the neighbors who live near the school, bringing hats, scarves, and mittens to those in need and making cards for shut-ins. I wish you all a restful summer.

In Christ,
Sheila LaSalle, principal
Crusaders for Academic Excellence and Social Justice

CK 'Girls on the Run' Team Shoe Drive: next weekend, June 16/17, before and after all Masses. We take any type, size, or condition of shoe. Shoes collected will be donated to Soles4Souls, an organization that distributes new and used shoes in the United States and in third world countries so that kids like us can go to school, stay healthy and break the poverty cycle. You can also drop off shoes under the Soles4Souls trailer in the parking lot just north of CBRC off the 240 bypass highway. Thanks for supporting our service project!

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

Ignatian Spirituality teaches us how to seek companionship with Jesus, and explore what it means to discern God's will. Pope Francis said, "discernment is a choice of courage, contrary to the more comfortable and reductive ways of rigorism and of laxness." During the Spiritual Exercises, we do train the spirit through specific spiritual Exercises, asking for specific graces to develop our will and courage, and get rid of rigorism and laxness. These are important steps in the growth of a Christian, and the Exercises help us to grow up our spirituality.

A new session of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will begin again in September. To sign up or get more information, call Ellen at 628-8626. Para español, llame a Cesar- 942-1050.

Franciscan Spirituality:

For more information about the local Secular Franciscans, contact Bob Fitzsimmons OFS at bobfitzofs@gmail.com or 509-521-9387.

Cursillo News: For information about Cursillo, contact Carl Zeamer at carlzeamer@gmail.com or 943-9991.

Carmelite Corner

Looking back to Pentecost, we can pray and reflect often on the Sequence sung before the Gospel: Come, O Holy Spirit, Come (Veni Sancte Spiritus)

Come O Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!

Come, O Father of the poor!
Come, source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine!

You of comforters the best;
You, the soul's most welcome guest;
Sweet refreshment here below;
In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.

O most blessed Light divine,
Shine within these hearts of yours,
And our inmost being fill!
