Visitation Ministry

946-1675

Welcome! If you are new in the parish, please introduce yourself after Mass and arrange to register with us; online at www.ckparish.org or in the office during business hours. We're glad you're here!

Sacrament of Baptism: is scheduled by appointment only; parents must have been registered members of the parish for at least 2 months and must attend a Baptismal Instruction Class offered at 7:00 p.m. the first Wednesday of each month.

Sacrament of the Sick: In the event of serious illness or medical emergency, Anointing and Eucharist may be arranged. Call the parish office during office hours, or the emergency number after hours. Contact the Visitation Ministry Office to arrange for home visits.

Celebration of Christian Funeral: After the death of a loved one, you may contact the Parish Office at your earliest convenience to arrange for a date and time for the funeral liturgy.

Sacrament of Marriage: Engaged couples requesting information about matrimony must contact and meet with one of the priests or deacons at least 4 months before the proposed wedding date and should expect to participate in a marriage preparation program.

Christian Initiation of Adults: Adults requesting information about full initiation into the Roman Catholic Church (the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation) may contact the RCIA Coordinator at 371-0994.

Christian Initiation of Children (CIC): We offer a program for older children who have not been baptized or received their First Communion. Call the Religious Education Office at 946-1154 for information.

Shroud of Turin Replica and talk: Friday, Feb. 7, at 7 p.m. at Christ the King. Don't miss this great opportunity to experience the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ in an unforgettable way. Considered one of the greatest mysteries of our time, the Shroud of Turin continues to amaze and baffle scientists, doctors, historians, artists and theologians. Scientists cannot explain the source of the image which contains photographic and 3-D properties on a cloth centuries old. But is this the actual burial cloth of Jesus Christ?

Bill Wingard, a speaker for the Shroud, will present the case for authenticity that has already been delivered on the east and west coasts including M.I.T., and you can be the judge. Come see a full-size replica of the Shroud and the photographic negative images that sparked an explosion of scientific interest and debate over a century ago. What message does the Shroud have for each of us? Bring others including teens on up and your cameras.

Apostles of Love Women's Charismatic Intercessory Group: meets on Thursdays at 7 p.m. in the parish library. For more information please contact Jacquie Workman at Jacque.workman@gmail.com

Sunday Reflection

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us. To those who accepted him, He gave power to become children of God. Alleluia! Jn. 1:14A, 12A

In today's readings, Jesus is proclaimed as Lamb of God, and Son of God. John the Baptist knew that this was the promised Messiah, who had come to take away the sins of the world. Through Jesus, we are all invited to become children of God in baptism, adopted by a loving Father. This is the baptism with the Holy Spirit that John speaks about.

What a miraculous gift and treasure! Sometimes we may forget just how miraculous it is; that we in our sinful and imperfect state can be made pure and become children of God. By our baptism, we are ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven! This gift can also be given to our families and children, because the Lord has made us His own family. God calls us to relationship because of His great love for us.

This is not an impersonal God, distant and unreachable. He is a loving Father to us, involved in our lives in every way, if we accept Him. He will not force us to do so, but calls us each by name and invites us to come to know and love and serve Him in this life, so that we may be happy with Him in eternity. So many people reject this amazing gift. Let us, as Catholics, console the Lord by responding fully to His invitation every day of our lives.

Every member of God's family is important and vital to the mission of the Church. Every child, every mother, father, man, or woman is created for a purpose and called to walk with God. The Church and the world is not the same without you. Just as John the Baptist was sent for a purpose, to prepare the way for the Lord and proclaim His glory, so you were sent to accomplish a mission that only you can complete. If you make a habit of spending time in prayer and studying the scriptures, Jesus will reveal His will in your life. Follow Him, and He will lead you on the Way of Perfection, drawing you day by day nearer to His Sacred Heart.

Spiritual Practices

Please Pray For:

Ignatian Spirituality

Throughout his life story, Ignatius refers to himself as a pilgrim. He did travel – to the Holy Land, to Rome – but this isn't what he meant. He saw his whole life as a pilgrimage. He said, "I want and I choose what better leads to God's deepening life in me." The Exercises provide a set of basic attitudes about an individual's personal pilgrimage toward God. Moving toward God isn't a one-time thing. Circumstances change. Opportunities open or close and when they change, God points out new ways. Ignatian Spirituality gives us tools of discernment, so we can sift through our prospects and situations, to see just where we need to act or move or change to move toward God.

For those who are participating in the Spiritual Exercises this year, our next group meeting will be Saturday, February 8, 2020, 9:00 am to 11 am at Holy Spirit Parish. The theme will be Discernment. To learn more about SEEL please visit <http://spiritual-exercises.com>. Alums are always welcome.

Franciscan Spirituality

Is Christ calling you to explore the Secular Franciscan life? Contact Bob Fitzsimmons at bobfitzofs@gmail.com, www.tcftran.org, or 521-9387.

Carmelite Corner

Ten Day Spiritual Retreat by Titus Brandsma

{1 of 18}
with Meditations on the Bl. Virgin Mary Leading to Intimacy with Jesus; taken from Essays on Titus Brandsma; Carmelite Media 2004 pp. 247-261

Introduction to Blessed Titus Brandsma:
1881, Feb 23: Born in Northern Holland
1905, June 17: Ordained a Carmelite Priest
1906-1942: Held various positions in teaching as a Professor of Philosophy and Carmelite Spirituality; was appointed spiritual advisor of the Roman Catholic Association of Journalists in 1935; lectured against Nazism; supported Catholic Schools; encouraged Dutch Catholic newspapers to resist printing Nazi propaganda which led to his arrest. On January 19, 1942, Nazi secret police arrested Titus Brandsma, after extensive interrogation, they labeled him a "most dangerous man." Following confinement in various prison camps he arrived at Dachau on July 19; he was executed on July 26, 1942.

On November 3, 1985 Pope John Paul II proclaimed Titus Brandsma Blessed and Martyr at St. Peter's in Rome.

Titus was well known for the spiritual retreats he gave. His notes on a ten day retreat are given here over numerous Sundays for your use in your own spiritual journey.

Blessed Titus, Pray for us

10 -Day Trip to Oberammergau (Passion Play) & European Cities: Have you ever thought about attending the Passion Play (which happens once every 10 years) and visiting Europe, but need someone to provide the plan? Well, here you go!

Join Deacon Mikhail Alnajjar, September 9-18, 2020, on this pilgrimage! In addition to the "Passion Play" in Oberammergau, Germany, we'll visit the Abbey of Ettal; Innsbruck, Austria; Regensburg, Prague; St. Peter's Cathedral; the 1,000 year-old Prague Castle; St. Vitus Cathedral; Dresden & Leipzig, Germany; Church of Our Lady (that was destroyed by Allied bombs during WWII and reconstructed after the reunification of Germany); St. Thomas Church (where Martin Luther preached); the Berlin wall; Brandenburg Gate; Pergamum Museum including the Ishtar Gate from Babylon.

For more information and a brochure, send your MAILING ADDRESS to Deacon Alnajjar at: dmikhail925@gmail.com.

Valentines Day Dance! Join us for dinner, dancing, and wine! Saturday, Feb. 8 starting at 6 p.m. at the St. Frances X Cabrini Hall in Benton City. For tickets or more info, call Lynda, 509-588-4235 after 5 p.m.

Mass for Life: Sunday, Jan. 19 at 11 a.m. at Holy Family Catholic Church in Yakima. Join Bishop Joseph J. Tyson in celebrating the dignity of human life from conception through natural death. The Mass marks the 47th anniversary of Roe vs. Wade, the U.S. Supreme Court decision which legalized abortion, which was decided on January 22, 1973. A light lunch and brief program in the Father Murtagh Gathering Hall will follow the Mass. All are welcome to attend.
