A Joke from Fr. Van:

A woman had just returned to her home from an evening of church services, when she was startled by an intruder.

She caught the man in the act of robbing her home of its valuables and yelled: 'Stop! Acts 2:38!' (Repent and be baptized, in the name of Jesus Christ, so that your sins may be forgiven.)

The burglar stopped in his tracks. The woman calmly called the police and explained what she had done.

As the officer cuffed the man to take him in, he asked the burglar: 'Why did you just stand there? All the old lady did was yell a scripture at you.'

'Scripture?' replied the burglar. 'She said she had an axe and two 38s!'

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

The Gospel today challenges us to see and believe the signs of grace in our lives: joy, peace, forgiveness, mercy and kindness. St. Vincent de Paul told us: "Kindness is the key to hearts." Please continue to help the CK SVdP Conference to share those graces with those who are struggling.

Since the beginning of 2023, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul has been able to visit and assist 97 households, consisting of 127 adults and 82 children. Your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul make this possible.

Contact Carmen, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 521-0383 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

Richland Secure Self Storage has graciously donated a storage unit to CK St. Vincent de Paul for furniture items donated to families in need. Please consider contacting RSSS for your storage unit needs.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

During Lent, the Spiritual Exercises lead a pray-er through Jesus' passion. Jesus might look passive in his suffering and death, but Ignatius and our faith assure us that Jesus came to earth for this purpose. It was his life's work. In Matthew 26, Jesus institutes the Eucharist at the Last Supper. Ignatius calls the Eucharist the "Greatest mark of God's love." It represents the key to understanding redemption. The Eucharist tells us that God holds nothing back from us. Even before his enemies came for him, Jesus gave us his body and blood as food for our souls. As we pray through this season of Lent, we are reminded again just how much God loves us.

For this year's participants, the next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be April 15 at 9 a.m. online. The theme will be the Resurrection and Learning to Love Like God. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://spiritual-exercises.com>.

Carmelite Corner

Praying portions of the Divine Office:

Office of Readings from the LOH, 1976 Catholic Book Pub. Co.;

Holy Saturday: From an ancient homily on Holy Saturday. (Contemplate on these reflections during Lent)

For your sake I, your God, became your son; I, the Lord, took the form of a slave; I, whose home is above the heavens, descended to the earth and beneath the earth. For your sake, for the sake of man, I became like a man without help, free among the dead. For the sake of you, who left a garden, I was betrayed to the Jews in a garden, and I was crucified in a garden.

See on my face the spittle I received in order to restore to you the life I once breathed into you. See there the marks of the blows I received in order to refashion your warped nature in my image. On my back see the marks of the scourging I endured to remove the burden of sin that weighs upon your back. See my hands, nailed firmly to a tree, for you who once wickedly stretched out your hand to a tree.

I slept on the cross and a sword pierced my side for you who slept in paradise and brought forth Eve from your side. My side has healed the pain in yours. My sleep will rouse you from your sleep in hell. The sword that pierced me has sheathed the sword that was turned against you.

Sunday Reflection

The 6 Characteristics of an Everyday Stewardship for Lent – Committed

I remember Jim Valvano, Jimmy V to many, saying the iconic words, "Don't give up; you can never give up." The former coach of the NC State men's basketball team was dying of cancer, yet he refused to throw in the towel and give in to his disease. His words exemplified the best of the human spirit we all share. Sometimes, living out those words seem much more difficult than saying them.

These words are also important for our faith life. The life Jesus calls us to is not easy. When working toward a life of greater generosity and surrender of all to God, we are prone to fall flat on our face many times. We are not called to this life only when we are strong. It is how we respond when times are the most difficult that truly defines us as disciples and stewards. The world may think we are down for the count, but rising again gives testimony that in Christ we are stronger.

Commitment takes a willingness to do the things needed to get stronger and build our spiritual muscles. We cannot expect to find success in the spiritual life unless we continue to work on our resolve and grow in our knowledge of the faith. A marathon runner would never be able to make it to the finish line unless they have trained and prepared in advance. We must work hard to stay the course and prepare for the race at hand. No matter what this life may have in store for us, we are called to not give up. God will never give up on us.
