Thank You!!

God Bless You For Your Generosity!

If you no longer need contribution envelopes, please call us to discontinue them.

Annual Catholic Appeal: As of July 31, we have received ACA payments of $269,140. That's $18,198 over our goal, and thus represents a rebate to our parish. Our total pledges were $290,467. Payments to meet that total would more than double our current rebate. Thank you for your support of the ACA and Christ the King parish!

For technical support, call 1-800-348-2886.

Please remember the parish and school in your will!

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

The challenge in today's Gospel is to forget how others have behaved toward us and to look to God's way of loving and forgiving. Our focus must be on God.

Perhaps there is a parishioner, a neighbor, or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness. Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at 509-946-1325...we want to help! Assistance with housing, utility bills, gasoline and food vouchers is one way that we can assure our neighbors that God loves them.

Contact Carmen, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 521-0383 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

A 20th Century Saint

St. Pius of Pietrelcina

Best known as Padre Pio, St. Pius was born Francesco Forgione in 1887 in Pietrelcina, Italy. As a young boy he suffered many illnesses including typhoid. He joined Capuchin Franciscans at 15 and took the name of Pius or "Pio" in honor of Pope Pius I. He was ordained in 1910, and at this time he received the marks of stigmata, the wounds of Christ, but they eventually healed. Frequent illnesses continued to plague him as a young man.

Padre Pio served in the Italian Medical Corps during World War I, but he was discharged early because of illness, which was likely tuberculosis. He was assigned to the friary in San Giovanni Rotondo. In 1918, while continuing to serve at the friary, the stigmata appeared again, and this time remained until his death.

Many faithful came to see him at the friary; his days were long, beginning with Mass at 5 a.m. then hearing confessions all day with breaks to bless the sick. A simple man, content to do God's will on earth and with the ardent desire to serve the sick and poor in whom he saw Christ, he urged a hospital, Casa Sollievo della Sofferenza (House for the Relief of Suffering), to be built in San Giovanni Rotondo. It opened in 1956.

Padre Pio died at the age of eighty-one in 1968 and in 2002 Pope John Paul II proclaimed him "St. Pio of Pietrelcina." His memorial falls in the Roman General Calendar on September 23, the anniversary of his death. He is considered the patron saint of civil defense volunteers and Catholic adolescents.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) started its 37th season last weekend. For the next nine months, seventeen retreatants, nine spiritual directors, one discerner, and three interns will be praying through the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius, which were written around the year 1500 by St. Ignatius Loyola. Before the pandemic, SEEL served people in the Tri-City area only. During the pandemic, SEEL was forced to learn how to conduct meetings online, and God expanded the ministry. This year, participants are from four states and nine cities! Monthly retreat meetings are hybrid – in person at the Parish of the Holy Spirit and on Zoom. We in SEEL are grateful for the support of so many people in our parish and others around the country who help teach people to pray.

The next meeting of SEEL is October 14 at 9 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit, and online - Zoom. The theme will be the Principle and Foundation. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Carmelite Corner

Excerpts from Office of Readings from the Carmelite Proper of the LOH; Institutum Carmelitanum, 1993

Solemnity of Saint Elijah, Prophet and Our Father; July 20

Office of Readings: From a Homily of Pope St. Gregory (Pope from 590-604) (2 of 4)

Wherever we direct our mental gaze, there we may be said to stand. That is why Elijah said: "The Lord lives, in whose sight I stand." He did indeed stand before God, for his heart was intent on God. That the Jews gazed at the pillar of cloud and stood at the doors of their tents in adoration, has this meaning: when the human mind perceives these high and heavenly things – albeit in image – the elevation of its thought has already lifted it free from the limits of its bodily habitation; and although it is denied sight of the divine substance, it humbly adores him whose power it can already see by spiritual illumination.

This is why Elijah is described as standing at the mouth of his cave and veiling his face when he heard the voice of the Lord speaking to him; for as soon as the voice of heavenly understanding enters the mind through the grace of contemplation, the whole man is no longer within the cave, for his soul is no longer taken up with matters of the flesh: intent on leaving bounds of mortality, he stands at the cave's mouth.

Sunday Reflection

The Hateful Things We Hug Tight

At the end of "Lord of the Rings: Return of the King," Gollum fights with Frodo for possession of the One Ring. He wins the fight, but in doing so topples over the edge of the mountain ledge, falling into the cavernous fires of Mount Doom. As he falls, we see him smile, and clutch the ring to his chest. He is happy. He has won what he spent his life pursuing.

It is only in the last millisecond before his face slips below the lava that we see his eyes widen in terror as he realizes the truth: the thing he clutches to his heart is the thing that killed him. In choosing the ring, he chooses death.

Sin, and the fallen nature of this world, makes us addicted to something that kills us.

Like any addiction, it is a vicious cycle. The less we forgive, the more hardhearted we become ... and the less we seek forgiveness ourselves.

What breaks the cycle? Reconciliation with God — or, Confession, as we call it. In fact, it does more than break the cycle. It turns it backward. Not only does it detoxify our souls of sin, it weakens our addiction to sin's effects — anger, vengeance, unforgiveness. The confession of evil works is the first beginning of good works, said St. Augustine.

Ultimately, I view our whole human life as a struggle on the ledge of a mountaintop. It is certain that we will choose sin — we always do. We will tumble over the side, toward ruin. But let us be Frodo, and not Gollum. Let us cling to the rock of the sacraments and accept the hand that would drag us away from the flames.

"Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight." — Sirach 27:30

Marriage Encounter:

A Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend is a time to rejoice in the beauty of your marriage, family and faith. It's a great time to rekindle your romance,

In and Around the Diocese

A Note from the Serra Club of the Tri-Cities:

"None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for one-self. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then whether we live or die, we are the Lord's." (Romans 14: 7-8)

Is God calling you to live for the Lord, serving His people as a priest, deacon, brother or sister?

Next Sunday, September 24, is Priesthood Sunday. Perhaps you can write cards or notes of appreciation to the priests in your lives, or share your homemade goodies with them.
