From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Today's second reading from Paul's letter to the Philippians calls each of us "to humbly regard others as more important than yourselves, each looking out not for his own interests, but also for those of others." In addition, the Gospel today is a great example of saying, "actions speak louder than words."

The central activity of our Conference is visiting the needy in their homes. We are committed to reaching out to the needy, rather than requiring them to report to an office. In the home, needy persons feel most free to confide their stories of struggle and for many these struggles are formidable. It is humbling work.

Contact Carmen, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 521-0383 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

Annual St. Vincent de Paul Second Collection October 7 and 8

Your CK St. Vincent de Paul Society will be taking up a second collection on October 7 and 8. This single collection funds the work we do on your behalf, every week of the year.

Please pray that the money collected will be sufficient to assist with their needs for another 12 months.

We are so grateful for those of you who contribute now and throughout the year.

Scam Reminder: If you receive an email or text message claiming to be from Msgr. Champoux or any of our staff asking for a 'response' or some 'help,' delete it! These are phishing attempts. Msgr. Champoux does not text, and would never use email in such a way. Please do not respond to these messages or click on links within them.

Parking Etiquette: please do not park on the property of our neighbors, or in such a way that their parking access is blocked.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

The church and Ignatian spirituality both teach that God creates us moment by moment. So God never forgets us, and wants to be intimately involved in every aspect of our being. We should all rejoice in that intimacy and closeness to God. It's unique to Christianity. Through the Spiritual Exercises and praying with scripture, we can begin to internalize the truth that God's will is so much more than just a pious religious phrase. Following God's will bring a richer way of life and deeper connection to Jesus, and the Spiritual Exercises give us more tools for doing so.

The next meeting of SEEL is October 14 at 9 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit, and on Zoom online. The theme will be the Principle and Foundation. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Carmelite Corner

Excerpts from Office of Readings from the Carmelite Proper of the LOH; Institutum Carmelitanum, 1993

Solemnity of Saint Elijah, Prophet and Our Father; July 20

Office of Readings: From a Homily of Pope St. Gregory (Pope from 590-604) (4 of 4)

Beloved brothers, we have already learned through our Redeemer's death, resurrection and ascension into heaven, what the joys of eternity mean, and we know that our fellow-citizens, his angels, have appeared bearing witness to his divinity. Let us therefore long for our King, and for those fellow-citizens we have known. While our feet stand within the walls of his holy Church, let us keep our eyes turned towards the door; let us mentally turn our back on the corruption of this temporal life; let us keep our hearts facing toward the freedom of our heavenly fatherland. We are still encumbered, it is true, by the many cares of this corruptible life. If then we cannot leave the cave completely, let us at least stand at its mouth, and go out whenever we are granted the favor of doing so by the grace of our Redeemer who lives and reigns with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, world without end. Amen.

Responsory: The word of the Lord came to Elijah. Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord. He went out and stood at the entrance to the cave, and the Lord passed by in the whisper of a gently breeze.

Sunday Reflection

Is It the Thought That Counts?

I can remember times when I received a gift that I would not have chosen for myself. At those times I certainly thought to myself that "it was the thought that counts." I was happy that the gift-giver thought of me at all. Then there have been times when my children have not given me a gift and then chose to tell me all about what they were going to give me. They would then follow it up by saying, "it was the thought that really counts." Really!?! I don't think so. I could think of sending my wife on a cruise, but that is not in any way the same as going on the cruise. I think there are times when all of us think we are more generous than we are, simply because we were thinking about being generous.

This way of thinking can be dangerous. Jesus teaches us to say what we mean and mean what we say. The intentionality of our actions is important, but intentionality without action is meaningless. How we act and what we give serves as evidence of our intentions and indicates where our heart truly lies. If we fool ourselves into thinking we are someone we are not, it can become difficult to see the truth. We need to look for the fruit in our lives. We need to make sure our desires and thoughts are moving us to act. You know that other saying about intentions, don't you? Don't pave the road to a place no one wants to end up with your intentions. Instead, let your intentions and actions lead others to another place where Jesus can be found.

A Note from the Serra Club of the Tri-Cities:

"(Christ Jesus) humbled Himself, becoming obedient unto death, even death on a cross." (Philippians 2:8)

If the Lord invites you to follow Him in humble obedience as a priest, deacon, brother, or sister, how will you respond?

Next Sunday, October 8, is Deacon Sunday. Plan how you will thank our deacons for all they do for our parish.
