From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our own lives of self-sacrifice which brings new life to others.

Sr. Rosalie Rendu told Frederic and the first members of the Society: "Always remember, that if our childhood has been one of constant want, perhaps, we too, would have given away to envy and hatred, as I must admit have many of the poor we serve. Be kind and love, for love is your first gift to the poor. They will appreciate your kindness and your love more than all else you can bring to them. If you wish to be loved, you must love, and if you have nothing to give, give yourself."

Please consider giving yourself by becoming a member of our local conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Contact Bruce, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 627-7295 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

A Happy Ending Isn't the Whole Story

"Is there a happy ending?"

When my kids were young, we never made it past the first whiff of any narrative tension before I got this question. As soon as whatever princess or furry woodland animal who was the hero of the story got into any small scrape, they wanted that reassurance, "Is there a happy ending?"

I can't say I blame them. Don't we all feel that way sometimes? We enter into a relationship with someone or some situation, and we just want to protect ourselves. We want to know it's not going to go badly — or, if it does, that we will be able to come back from it. It's a human instinct, a reflex. Our inclination to protect ourselves makes it so that we sometimes want to press fast-forward on the bad stuff and skip straight ahead to the happily-ever-after.

Easter is the ultimate happy ending. It's the day of miracles. The day when all the stones roll away and all the sins are forgiven. It's the day that puts everything right.

But if we learned anything from this week — from the Passion and death of the Lord — it's that we can't press fast-forward on the hardships of life. That tension, that loss, that fear — it's crucial, isn't it? As Catholics, we are who we are because of Easter. But Easter doesn't happen without Good Friday.

So, does the story of salvation have a happy ending? We know it does. But we also remember that the ending isn't all that matters.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

Happy Easter! During Easter Season, people making the Spiritual Exercises are reflecting on, and learning how to love like God. They consider how limitless are the blessings given to us through God's love. Each person is also challenged to hold nothing back from God. Ignatius gave us this prayer: "Take, Lord, my liberty, my memory, my understanding, my entire will—all that I have and call my own. You have given it all to me. To you, Lord, I return it. Everything is yours; do with it what you will. Give me only your love and your grace. That is enough for me." Try praying this prayer yourself. It will change your life. Wishing you a most blessed Easter season!

The next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be April 13 at 9 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit and on Zoom online. The theme will be the Resurrection and Learning to Love Like God. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality

As St. Benedict tells us in Chapter 15 of the Holy Rule we say 'Alleluia!' from 'the holy feast of Easter until Pentecost' throughout the Divine Office. Alleluia!

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Ten Day Spiritual Retreat by Titus Brandsma; taken from Essays on Titus Brandsma; Carmelite Media 2004 pages 247-261

Meditations {Day VII of Retreat, 3 of 4}

Meditation 2: Episode-The Bl. Virgin; Burial of Jesus:

In silence Mary accompanies the crowd. We remain with her. Finally Jesus is buried; he disappears. What profound humiliation! The opinion of the Jewish world: his mission is a fiasco. The apostles are filled with fear and doubts. Mary is untroubled. Her confidence; she says he will rise again: Mary believes. Jesus is in the tabernacle as in the tomb. Believe and trust with Mary.

Teachings contained in this episode:

5- Consider the tabernacle as a symbol of the burial of Jesus, and of his deep humiliation. Make frequent visits. Have faith and trust.

Conversation with Mary

Mother of sorrows: In her, suffering with her Son is made fruitful. Be united with her in the contemplation of the passion and with her offer it to God. See the wounds of our savior as so many roses blooming on the rose-bush of love. Especially see the wound in his side, in order to hide there and find the way to his heart. What a place Mary had in it! What a place she leaves there for us!

With Mary bury Jesus in a newly-hewn tomb, the renewed tomb of our heart. Hide him there until he asks us to act in order to reveal his life in us.

Sunday Reflection

What Would Mary Do?

This Easter morning, I am thinking of Mary Magdalene. I want to know her state of mind as she approached the tomb in the darkness. Was she afraid? Was she thinking clearly? Was she tired? Had grief and trauma robbed her of her sleep the last two nights? What did she intend to do? Anoint Christ's body, yes — but what else? Kiss his hands, trace the markings where the lash had fallen upon his skin? Say goodbye? Weep? Despair?

What were the words she planned to whisper into the cold, empty darkness that morning, as she wept over God's body?

I don't know anything about her state of mind that Easter morning, except that I know she wanted to be with Christ. Perhaps that was all she knew, too. Perhaps she had no other thought, no other desire, than nearness to him. She didn't need to understand everything, and she didn't expect answers — she didn't dare hope for that.

But everything and everyone had fallen apart around her, and in Jesus' presence she knew her heart would be able to rest.

If you have ever been in the midst of a crisis in your life and found yourself pacing the floors of your house when no one else is awake, muttering the words to a prayer you know by heart, you know what Mary Magdalene felt. In those moments, we do not always feel God's presence. Sometimes, when we look for Him, we only see an empty tomb.

When these dark moments come, I pray you will remember the faithfulness of this great saint. Be like Mary Magdalene. Look for Jesus, always. You may not always find him, but he will always find you.

"She ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, 'They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him.'" — John 20:2
