From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus explains the meaning of the scriptures, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations".

Like the disciples, when we offer and receive forgiveness, our hearts burn because we encounter the risen Christ within us and our neighbors.

Have you considered answering the call to "help the poor find forgiveness and healing in their life" by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

Contact Bruce, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 627-7295 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

Ignatian Spirituality is made up of several core principles. These include: 1) Each of us is loved by God. 2) God creates each person uniquely and individually, moment by moment. 3) To be fully human requires spiritual freedom. 4) Humans mature through obedience to God's will. 5) Evil works to block freedom, disrupt obedience, and undermine humanity. 6) With grace, we can find God in all things. 7) We are called to promote God's reign, to be apostolic. 8) We can develop companionship in Christ, working together for the Kingdom. When lived out, these principles form followers into discerning Christians.

For this year's participants, the last meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be May 11 at 9 a.m. online. The theme will be Gifts of the Spiritual Exercises. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality

The Rule of St. Benedict is probably 50% quotes from scripture. It's St. Benedict's way of 'opening our minds to understand the scriptures' and applying these lessons to our way of life.

Our small group meets on the third Thursday of the month, this time April 18. We open and close with prayer, and read a portion of the Rule and commentary and share insights. We'd love to have you join us!

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Ten Day Spiritual Retreat by Titus Brandsma; taken from Essays on Titus Brandsma; Carmelite Media 2004 pages 247-261

Day VIII of Retreat: Meditations

Resolution 1: We must often remember that we have a Father in heaven who helps us here to find and to follow the way toward our paternal home. Think of how much others have done before us in order to gain heaven. We can do what they did. Help us, God. We must always be available for everything, to undertake everything.

Resolution 2: Consider life as a Way of the Cross, but take the cross on our shoulders joyously and courageously, because by his example and by his grace, Jesus has made it light. Avoid sadness regardless of how difficult the trial we are suffering. Then more than ever make the Way of the Cross with Mary, in order to keep a happy face, and to see the sufferings of this life in a higher light, where they become a sign of election and reason for comfort.

Sunday Reflection

The Twist Ending

Any reader of psychological thrillers will come across the “dead main character trope” fairly often. This is the famous Sixth Sense twist ending (I would say “spoiler alert,” but the movie is older than most of the people who work in Youth Ministry at your archdiocese, so you’ve probably seen it by now) where the reader finds that the main character has been dead for all or most of the story.

I’m always a little disappointed when this happens. It delivers shock value, sure, but it also undermines everything that happens in the story. You’ve come on a journey with this character, only to find out that nothing you saw transpire was real in the way you thought it was. You feel a little stupid, because the whole time you only had part of the truth.

I suspect Jesus knows this about us. He knows we don’t like to have the rug pulled out. It’s why he is so upfront about his humanity following the resurrection. See how Jesus, resurrected, shows the disciples his feet, his hands. See how he asks them for food and lets them watch him eat it. See how this creates in them an understanding, a belief.

The humanity of Jesus Christ is absolutely crucial. It’s what bridges the divide between the sons of Eve and the God she defied. Our reconciliation with God cannot happen unless human flesh pays the price that will balance the scales. Human flesh: skin that can tear and bleed, bones that can break, a mouth that can thirst, a stomach that can ache with hunger.

The passion and death of Jesus Christ is not a thriller with a twist ending: he was a ghost the whole time! The twist, if anything, is this: he was human the whole time.

“Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” — Luke 24:39
