Second Collection this weekend! Read more on the next page....

2024 Annual Catholic Appeal: As of March 31, here's our situation on the 2024 ACA. Of our goal of $266,868, we have received pledges of $262,332 and payments of $223,250. The Bishop relies on our help (and Christ the King benefits from rebates over our goal amount). Have you made a pledge/contribution?

Notice that we've not met our pledge goal. We really do need your help! As Fr. Tom says: 'perhaps you could match the amount you spend at Starbucks or Amazon in a year. Investing in our religious education programs, for example, is worth that much, do you agree?'

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Today, Jesus looking around those seated in the circle said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Our members recently visited a neighbor in need who had been hospitalized with a stroke and had learned that a family member who was responsible for paying his mortgage and lot rent had failed to make two months of payments. Our neighbor had never missed a payment for seven years and now was in need of help to avoid losing what he had worked so hard to keep. He was embarrassed to ask for help and we made him realize how much he is our brother and that he is loved. SVdP was able to pay a part of his debt which he greatly appreciated.

As you go through your daily life, take the time to look at those around you. When you choose to give of your treasure, time or talents to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you are indeed doing the will of God and your gifts indeed bring Christ's love and compassion to your brothers and sisters.

Have you considered joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring God's love to the poor? Contact Bruce, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 627-7295 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life are designed for lay persons with busy and varied lives. The Exercises are flexible; each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. Participants learn many types of prayer including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation and meditation. The Spiritual Exercises change people; they are powerful. By delving deeper into self through prayer, the pray-er discovers God within, in a new, deeper way. People of all faiths are welcome.

This year, the Spiritual Exercises will begin again in September. This past season, SEEL reached the limit of our capacity for applicants. So, if you'd like to join the Spiritual Exercises this coming season, we urge you to apply early. The deadline for applying is August 15. If you have any questions or want more information, please visit our website at <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

St. Benedict rarely mentions biological families. His focus is on building 'families' of monks who hear the Word of God and carry it out. By extension, following the Rule of St. Benedict can help all of us be part of God's family.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Teachings of Saint Teresa of Jesus {Teresa of Avila} from the Book of Her Life Chpt 22: 6-7 where she explains the importance of meditating on the human nature of Christ:

"Whoever lives in the presence of so good a friend and excellent leader, who went ahead of us to be the first to suffer, can endure all things.

"The Lord helps us, strengthens us, and never fails; He is a true friend. And I see clearly, and I saw afterward, that God desires that if we are going to please Him and receive His great favors, we must do so through the most sacred humanity of Christ, in whom He takes His delight....

"This Lord of ours is the one through whom all blessing come to us. He will teach us these things. In beholding His life we find that He is the best example.

"What more do we desire than to have such a good friend at our side, who will not abandon us in our labors and tribulations, as friends in the world do?

"Blessed are they who truly love Him and always keep Him at their side!

Sunday Reflection

In the Family Way

Look here: no one is more family-oriented than me. I drive a minivan. I wear mom jeans. I wipe unidentified gunk off of kids' faces without a second thought.

I'm all about family, but I'm not always a fan of what "family" has come to mean in the modern lexicon. Family values. Family-friendly. Family-oriented. It's usually a synonym for "non-offensive." Soft. Moderate. Nice.

It's all fine, I suppose. But is it genuine? Creating a family, bringing that family physically into the world, was the hardest and most painful thing I ever did. The care and keeping of that family — the teamwork with my spouse, the feeding and watering of the children, the teaching of the writing and the reading the and praying — it's very hardcore. It's not all stuffed animals and peekaboo. It's a mental, spiritual, and physical challenge that daily brings me to my knees.

I'm not even talking exclusively about parenting young children. I'm talking about being part of a family in any way — being a son, daughter, sister, cousin, uncle. Families are complicated and strange and messy. Sometimes boundaries need to be drawn, or they need to be crossed. Sometimes walls need to be put up or torn down. It's never easy. It's never simple.

But I've never known someone who didn't want to be part of a family in some way, whether that's a blood family or one created by circumstance. And there's a reason Christ creates a family ("Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother") and not a club.

We are part of Christ's family, and what we can expect from that is certainly not a life of simple, clear-cut, undemanding discipleship. We can expect confusion. We can expect discomfort. But we can expect to be perpetually drawn to the heart of one who loves us without hesitation, without condition.

In the end, we're family.

"Here are my mother and my brothers." — Mark 3:33

A Note from the Serra Club

"Jesus said to (the crowd), 'Who are My mother and My brothers?' And looking around at those seated in the circle, He said, 'Here are My mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is My brother and sister and mother.'" (from Mark 3: 20-25)

Be a member of Jesus's family! And do His will as a priest, deacon, brother, or sister.
