Second Collection July 13/14: for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. More than 37 million people in the United States live in poverty. For more than 50 years, CCHD has addressed the problem of poverty. For example, in Washington State, the PREPARES program to help women and families from conception to age 5 of a child's life has been funded in the past with the help of grants from CCHD. With your help, we can work to end poverty – not just for a day but for a lifetime. Please be generous. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

Sunday Reflection

A Prophet and His Native Place

"A prophet is not without honor except in his native place." It could be the slogan of high school reunions everywhere.

I speak from experience — I didn't go to my high school reunion, but I do live in the same area in which I grew up. Ghosts from the past lurk in every grocery aisle and gas station. Former classmates fill my prescriptions at the pharmacy. I am always sure to see an old teacher or two at the Fourth of July parade.

If my teenage self knew that this was her future, she would be horrified. She wanted to grow up and move away, not because she didn't like living in this town, but because she wanted to reinvent herself. And you can't reinvent yourself in your native place. In your hometown, you'll always be exactly what you are — no more, no less.

The same was true for Jesus, who was probably the only person actually worthy of admiration at his high school reunion. When he returned to his native place, he was what he had always been — God and man, Messiah, miracle-worker. This is not something he became, it was always within him.

But the people of Nazareth cannot accept it. Why?

Well, probably for the same reason that I wanted to reinvent myself when I was 16. We don't often see anything worth venerating in the "right now" of our lives. We think happiness is a promotion or a pay bump away. We think we'll finally be holy when we find the time to take that silent retreat. We think we will be beautiful when we lose ten pounds.

The Nazarenes lived with God right under their noses, and they didn't realize it. So, when he came in all his greatness, the dissonance was too much to bear, and they rejected him. They didn't want that God — the one they had dismissed or overlooked or ignored. They wanted a different one. A shinier one. One that didn't look like the "right now" of their lives.

But that's where God is, folks. He's in the right now, and nowhere else. He's waiting there for you, with all the happiness, holiness, and beauty your life needs.

Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." — Mark 6:4

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel the people ask: "How is it that such miraculous deeds are accomplished by his hands?" Because of your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul many "miraculous deeds" are accomplished for someone in need.

When you donate to the St. Vincent de Paul Conference at Christ the King, know that through your kindness someone who is suffering will be touched by God in a miraculous way.

Have you considered joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring God's love to the poor? Contact Bruce, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 627-7295 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality.

For the past 37 years, the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life, here in the Tri-Cities, has been providing a retreat that gives a person a deep encounter with God while teaching them various methods of prayer including contemplation, consideration, meditation, colloquy, the Examen, discernment and more. This flexible retreat is not a class, a lesson, or head knowledge. Instead, SEEL provides a deep dive into spirituality by experiencing it through prayer. It fosters a deeper connection to God by helping you practice various forms of prayer and repetition including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation and meditation.

SEEL is flexible; each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. This is a Catholic, Christian program, and people of all faiths are welcome. Pray about whether you are called to participate in this coming session, starting in September.

If you feel called to join the Spiritual Exercises this year, please apply as soon as possible. For an application or information, please visit our website at <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

While our small group usually meets on the third Thursday of the month, this time St. Benedict's feast day is on the second Thursday: July 11! Please come join us for prayer, lectio, and dessert! We meet in the parish library at noon, and our gathering usually lasts an hour.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Teachings of Saint Teresa of Jesus {Teresa of Avila} from the Book of Her Life:

"However, it must be understood not all imaginations are by their nature capable of this meditating; all souls are capable of loving.

Moreover, the true lover loves everywhere and is always thinking of the beloved! It would be a thing hard to bear if we were able to pray only when off in some corner.

And in matters touching on obedience He doesn't want the one who truly loves Him to take a different path than the one He took...

Let us praise Him, my daughters, for He has granted it to us, and let us not tire of praising so great a King and Lord. He has prepared for us a kingdom without end in exchange for a few little trials, which come wrapped in a thousand consolations and will end tomorrow. May He be forever blessed, Amen, Amen."

A Note from the Serra Club

"My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." (from 2 Corinthians 12: 7-10)

If you think you may be called to serve Jesus as a priest, permanent deacon, religious brother, or sister, don't worry about your weaknesses. Consider the power of God's grace working in your lives.
