Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

Palm Sunday reminds us how fickle we are. We too might be praising Jesus as King and laying down palm fronts for him one minute, and demanding he die, (or at least leave us alone) in the next. During Lent, we prayerfully consider three things: 1) how Jesus suffered in his humanness, 2) how he hid his divine power, and 3) how he was betrayed, imprisoned, groundlessly convicted, and murdered. There are terrible events. This prayer is a death watch. And we might be tempted to escape or avoid the pain. But one thing is certain, we pray through the passion out of love for Jesus our Savior and King. And in this period, we ask for the grace to stand by Christ, to stay in the moment, and to suffer with him. It's not an easy grace to ask for.

For this year's participants and alums, the next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be April 26 at 9 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit and on Zoom online. The theme will be The Resurrection and Learning to Love Like God.. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality:

Our small group usually meets on the third Thursday of the month at noon in the parish library. We are not meeting this month, because April 17 is Holy Thursday.

See you May 15!

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Venerable Mary Angeline Teresa (12 of 12)

Her writings on prayer and true happiness:

I love the simple gaze and the consuming of love that I feel in my soul. We must keep our eyes always on Our Divine Master; we must be silent at His feet. I will keep silence so that He may flow into me; take possession of me, giving full liberty to His grace and love to act in me.

I delight in listening to Him. I love to meditate on the mystery of God dwelling within the Blessed Virgin, it seems to resemble my usual attitude of soul, and like Her I adore the hidden God within me. O how I desire my union with Him to be closer every day.

I believe that the ideal life of the soul is reached by living the supernatural, by realizing that God dwells within the depths of our soul, and do all things with Him; then nothing can be small, however common-place in itself, for we do not live in, but above, such things.

He has put into my heart a thirst for what is Infinite and a longing to love which He alone can satisfy. I go to Him like a little child to its mother, and ask Him what I long for and to take possession of me.

Venerable Mary Angeline Teresa, Pray for us.
