Prayer at the Passing of Pope Francis

Dear God,

We thank You for the years of service Pope Francis gave to our Church: his encyclicals, his prayers, his pilgrimages, his work for a brighter tomorrow. May his life and service remind us of our ultimate goal — You and You alone.

Amen.

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In the Gospel today, Jesus stands in the midst of us and says: "Peace be with you!" Indeed, the mercy of God centers our hearts in peace.

During a home visit we often meet their family members and learn of some of their current challenges. Recently, our members visited with a young mother with three children. During her pregnancy she dealt with multiple health issues and is currently unable to get back to work. She has little extended family to be able to assist her. We helped her with a bus pass and utility assistance. In addition, we were able to share other local programs, like Prepares, that can provide more direct support with parenting, as well as the Tri-Cities Diaper bank.

As our members visit with families who have called our message line for help, we are grateful to be welcomed into their homes where they are more comfortable to speak with us. Our desire is to bring peace and hope to our neighbors.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

We have spent several months opening our hearts to God, releasing attachments, asking forgiveness for our sins, and getting to knowing Jesus as a friend. We followed him to Calvary where he is tortured to death, and now, we are amazed and thrilled that Jesus has risen from the dead to live in each of us. As we contemplate Jesus' love for us, and his amazing resurrection, we spend time considering how we might grow in love so that we too can love like God does. This is a challenging yet humbling possibility, that we too could love with our whole being, and learn to love like God loves. This is the grace we ask for now.

For this year's participants, the last meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be May 10, at 9 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit and on Zoom online. The theme will be the Resurrection and Learning to Love like God. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality:

Among the chapters we are reading, toward the end of the Rule of St. Benedict, is Chapter 64: 'The Election of an Abbot.' How fitting as we pray for the election of a new pope! Here is part of the text:

"But let him who is elected abbot always bear in mind what manner of burden he has received, and Who it is to Whom he will have to render account of his stewardship; and let him know that it behoves him to be of service rather than to be served. It behoves him therefore to be learned in the divine law, that he may thence bring forth things new and old; to be chaste, sober, merciful; and let him always exalt mercy above judgment, that he himself may attain it. Let him hate the faults, let him love the brethren.... In the matter of the commands he gives let him be provident and considerate before God and man."

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Meditate with the Church on 1 Peter 2:9-10 taken from Office of Evening Prayer I, Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday):

"You are 'a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people he claims for his own to proclaim the glorious works' of the One who called you from darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were no people, but now you are God's people; once there was no mercy for you, but now you have found mercy."

Reflect on the following portion of Preface II of Easter:

Through him the children of light rise to eternal life and the halls of the heavenly Kingdom are thrown open to the faithful; for his Death is our ransom from death, and in his rising the life of all has risen.
