From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel we see that prudent decisiveness means that we recognize that all our choices in daily living are really choices for eternal life. Admission into heaven is something money cannot buy. The only currency that has any value to secure our entrance is that of love.

The neighbors we visit allow us to share the love we have found in Christ with them. We are often told in the scriptures that the church presents to us throughout the year that the laborers are few. The poor are truly with us here in Richland, West Richland and Benton City. However our conference members are in need of additional hands and hearts to serve our neighbors in need. Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

The Christ the King Conference provides an excellent organization in which you can grow spiritually as well as use your talents to address some physical and spiritual needs of others in our community. For more information, contact Bruce, the CK SVdP President, at (509) 627-7295 or bruce@svdpck.org.

Learn more about our conference at our website: www.svdpc.org

Richland Secure Self Storage has graciously donated a storage unit to CK St. Vincent de Paul for furniture items donated to families in need. Please consider contacting RSSS for your storage unit needs.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

This year's session of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) has begun. If you want more information please visit our website at <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

St. Benedict references a verse from today's Gospel in his Rule: 'the abbot must ... remember to whom he will have to give an account of his stewardship.' (RB 64:7)

This instruction applies, really, to anyone in a position of leadership, and we are all in such a position in some way. St. Paul's letter to the Colossians puts the instruction in a different way: 'whatever you do, in word or in deed, to everything in the name of the Lord Jesus.' (Col 3:17)

When we approach leadership with this attitude, everyone benefits.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Excerpts from Nine Themes in Carmelite Spirituality, Fr. Patrick McMahon, O. Carm., www.ocarm.org

Carmel is about Community

One of the most frightening phenomena of the 20th century has been the breakdown of community at almost every level of society. Pope John Paul repeatedly wrote and spoke on this subject.

Individualism has become a cancer that has eaten our cultural soul from within. Look at the problem. People are no longer interested in the common wheel. They're interested only in their own personal good. The most frightening breakdown of community has been the collapse of the family. Most families no longer eat a meal together daily. And where there is no supper table there is no longer any family.... While it is good for each of us to have our own space, it eats away our soul for us to have no common time and no common space whatsoever with our families.

As Catholic Christians we know that there is an essential connection between Jesus in the community of the faithful and Jesus present in the Eucharistic banquet; between Jesus present in the least of his brothers and sisters, and Jesus speaking in the scriptures. It is one Christ. As Catholic Christians our life takes its meaning not from our individualism but from our belonging to a community of people who together belong to the Lord. There is no salvation for those who remain individuals. Salvation comes, we Catholics believe, from being in the bark of Christ in the community of the faithful. We have no future if we're not a community and there is no future if we do not learn how to be a community.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.
