Sunday Reflection

Choosing to Love One Another

Love one another. The greatest commandment, the simplest commandment — and if you've ever loved anyone, you know it's also the hardest.

I'm man enough to admit it. I've seen one or two of those cheesy Hallmark movies that are especially popular around the holidays. Boy meets Girl. Boy and Girl encounter a catastrophic roadblock to their relationship — they're coaches of rival high school volleyball teams, or he runs a dog kennel and she works at a feline rescue, so it could never, ever work out, right? But sprinkle a little movie magic over the whole situation and Boy and Girl find what Hallmark tells us is true love.

I could make a list of all the things that are inaccurate about these movies, and something I would put right near the top — maybe even above the sometimes-unbelievable storylines — is the idea that love is a feeling.

See, I'm not sure if it's accurate to call these movies love stories. Attraction stories, sure. But if you've ever forgiven someone who's hurt you, nursed a dying parent, gotten up for an infant's night feeding or let your kid have the last piece of cake, you know that real love is a verb. It's something you do. And it is almost always a choice.

Love one another. How often do we hear this? How often do we think about what it really means? How often do we take a moment to consider the action Jesus is asking us to take and the choice he is asking us to make?

Rosary in May for an End to the Pandemic

Pope Francis has invited Catholics and Marian Shrines around the world to dedicate the month of May to a marathon of prayer for an end to the Covid-19 pandemic. You can read about his message here: <https://www.vaticannews.va/en/pope/news/2021-04/pope-francis-shrines-may-2021-prayer-end-pandemic.html>

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

Ignatian prayer opens our hearts to God's wonderful creation. All created things of this world are gifts, given to humankind to help us get to heaven. But, of course, not all things are good for a particular individual. This is where discernment comes in. We must decide what created things will take us to God, and which will lead us away. To discern that, we must be willing to let go of the things that bind us, the things we're attached to, and embrace those that will take us to divine love. Through prayer, community, and spiritual direction, Ignatian Spirituality provides the tools a person needs to understand how to do this.

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life are completed for this year. You are welcome to join us in September. To learn more about SEEL please visit <http://spiritual-exercises.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality

If we read the Holy Rule three times a year, the portion to be read on May 9 is Chapter 1: The Kinds of Monks. St. Benedict identifies four kinds of monks, two to be commended and two who are, as he says, 'detestable.' Implicit in the descriptions is the idea that monks are men; however, women also live in Benedictine communities. The principles of the Rule can guide us all.

If Benedictine spirituality interests you, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Solemn Intercessions from Good Friday

During the Good Friday service, 10 Solemn Intercessions are universally lifted in prayer. They are provided here for you to call them to mind and bring them to God in your private prayer as well.

3. For all orders and degrees of the faithful

Let us pray also for our Bishop Joseph, for all Bishops, Priests, and Deacons of the Church and for the whole of the faithful people.

Almighty ever-living God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is sanctified and governed, hear our humble prayer for your ministers, that, by the gift of your grace, all may serve you faithfully. Through Christ our Lord. Amen

Missalettes

If you'd like to have a guide to Mass and music:

As we return to increased attendance at Mass, and more options for singing, it can be challenging to follow along with the readings and music.

While we can't provide the Breaking Bread missalettes this year, because they can't be shared as in the past, here are a couple of options for you:

- The books are available for purchase from Oregon Catholic Press (www.ocp.org). A hard copy is $17.
- An app in both the Android and Apple app stores provides a downloadable copy of this year's Breaking Bread missalette for $4.99.

Bring a book or your tablet or phone to Mass or use them at home! Remember to take them home if you use them at church.
