About the Fr. Tolton Play

Tolton: From Slave to Priest is a powerful one-man multi-media play on the life of Father Augustus Tolton, the first African American priest (1854-1897). Father Tolton's compelling story offers encouragement and hope to our world, so desperately in need of reconciliation and healing. It is much more than an inspirational story – Father Tolton's example offers a key to unlock the divisions that plague our society.

In Tolton: From Slave to Priest, you might hear words, common in the late 1800s yet highly objectionable today, describing people of African heritage. Some of these terms were very offensive and derogatory even then. Bishop Joseph Perry, the postulator for Father Tolton's cause for sainthood, reviewed the script for Tolton and encouraged us not to shy away from the reality of abuse and insults that Father Tolton suffered, but to use the actual language he would have heard.

The play features a full cast of characters on a video screen who interact with actor Jim Coleman live on stage. This unique format is visually engaging while also retaining the personal effect of a live performance. Audiences leave the show feeling that they have "met" Father Tolton. The production is enhanced by an original soundtrack based on traditional African American spirituals, orchestrated by composer Tony Manfredonia.

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In this Sunday's Gospel, we find that Jesus "... went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people."

St. Vincent de Paul members visit your neighbors proclaiming the gospel by offering assistance to their particular needs and relieving their anxiety about various issues. Saint Vincent de Paul offered the following advice: " May our presence and care to those most in need reflect the gentleness, esteem and dignity we see reflected in the life and work of Jesus."

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

During this part of the Spiritual Exercises, we pray about Jesus' life so we can understand who he is, how he calls us, and how we can follow. This means we adopt a spiritual attentiveness, watching and waiting on God's lead. We notice the ebb and flow of our feelings and moods. We are a servant following our master, Jesus. The question we seek to answer during this time is "What more does God want of me? What more can I do to respond to God's love for me?"

The next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be February 11 at 9 a.m. online. The theme will be Discernment. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://spiritual-exercises.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls Peter and Andrew and 'at once they left their nets and followed him.' In Chapter 5 of the Rule of St. Benedict, on Obedience, he writes of obedient servants: '[they] immediately put aside their own concerns, abandon their own will, and lay down whatever they have in hand, leaving it unfinished.' He further notes that '...it is love that impels them to pursue everlasting life...' The root of obedience is to listen to God's call. May we be like Peter and Andrew!

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Praying portions of the Divine Office:

Pray and ponder the following Preface IV of the Sundays in Ordinary Time which Father prays at the beginning of the Eucharistic Prayer:

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God, through Christ our Lord.

For by his birth he brought renewal to humanity's fallen state, and by his suffering, canceled out our sins; by his rising from the dead he has opened the way to eternal life, and by ascending to you, O Father, he has unlocked the gates of heaven.

And so, with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominions, and with all the hosts and Powers of heaven, we sing the hymn of your glory, as without end we acclaim:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts...

Sunday Reflection

Drop Your Nets and Be Free

There are times I wish I had no obligations. It would be great to take my wife's hand, hop in the car, and drive into the sunset. Where we were going would not matter as much as the fact that we would have nowhere we had to be. There would be nothing we had to do. No bills. No commitments. No problems. Freedom!

Life doesn't work like that, however. When Jesus came along and asked some fishermen to drop their nets and follow him, they did just that. Wow! In some ways, they experienced true freedom. That is what Jesus offers all of us. Yet, true freedom looks quite different than my dream scenario.

In living in the true freedom that Jesus offers, there are things we must do and places we must go. That is because freedom only exists in following God's will, not our own. We are called to be and called to give ourselves completely to God without reservations. We always have the free will to not respond to His call, but we will find that a negative answer may complicate our lives even further. God's path for us calls on us to give freely of what we have been given. Saying no to that call means we carry the weight of those gifts. We were never meant to keep them. The path of God's will may seem long and winding, but it is the one that leads us into that sunset. It is the way to true freedom.
