Announcements

Thank you to everyone who helped with our Holy Week and Easter celebrations!

We're delighted to be making progress in our return to normal Mass celebrations!

However, Mass and music can be difficult to follow without the Breaking Bread missalettes we have traditionally provided. (Common use materials are still not allowed, so we can't provide them.)

You may bring your own copy to Mass; the books are available for purchase from Oregon Catholic Press (www.ocp.org). A hard copy is $17, but OCP also has an app in both the Android and Apple app stores that provides a downloadable copy of this year's Breaking Bread missalette for $4.99.

If you load the app on your phone or tablet, bring it – or your book – to Mass and follow the Order of the Mass and music. Song numbers will be posted; just remember not to sing loudly, as that is still a contagion concern, and take your book or device home with you!

Stewardship

Annual Catholic Appeal: We have reached 100% of our goal and now any donations return to the parish. Thank you!!!!!!

Thank You for your Food Bank Donations! You may continue to leave non-perishable food items and household products in the box outside the parish office. (No open products, medicines, or clothing/shoes.)

Thank you for continuing your parish contributions by mailing us a check (or dropping one in the 'mail' slot outside the parish office), giving online (see information below), or setting up a 'bill pay' automated payment. If you have any questions about how to donate, please call us!

If you no longer need contribution envelopes, please call us to discontinue them.

We are so very grateful for your generosity. God bless you abundantly!

Online giving: To use online giving, click the Online Giving Icon on www.ckparish.org.

Sunday Reflection

Eye Has Not Seen

They say seeing is believing. But if you've ever ordered a pair of pants online, you know that's not always the case. Whatever the photos promise us, what looked like a perfectly nice shade of navy blue on our computer screens comes in the mail as an unusual shade of blue green that only appears in the giant box of Crayola crayons.

The Apostle Thomas, who couldn't bring himself to accept that Jesus had risen from the dead without seeing him, is such an utterly relatable figure in the Gospels. Thomas is still reeling from a loss — not only of his good friend but his Lord, who was taken prisoner and crucified before his eyes. Thomas is guarding himself. He's not believing the hype. He's going to be the only judge of what is real and what is fiction.

Would any of us be any different? We've all had those thoughts. Can we believe it all — Jesus, salvation history, the Eucharist — when we haven't seen it with our own two eyes?

That's when we need to remember that those two eyes were absolutely positive they had ordered a pair of navy blue pants.

It's easy for us to sit back stroking our chins in judgment at Thomas, "you didn't believe the testimony of your friends!" But do we accept the testimony of our friends? The saints, the popes, the Church fathers themselves?

Sometimes the things that are most worthy of believing can't be seen with the naked eye.

A Note from Our St. Vincent de Paul Society: Many of you will soon receive a government stimulus payment. For many, it will be a life-saver. For others, nice, but not necessary. If you fall into the latter category and would like to help the former, please consider sharing some of your stimulus funds with St. Vincent de Paul. The need in our community is great and is likely to become even greater as rent and utility payments that have been delayed become due and evictions become possible again. You can send a check to the parish office or donate online using the St. Vincent de Paul designation under the 'Give a gift' page.

Does a family you know need assistance? Please call 946-1325 to let us know.

Thank you to those who have donated so generously. Your kindness is greatly appreciated! God bless you!

Tri-Cities Prep is now accepting applications for the 2021-2022 school year. Applications can be found on our website: tcprep.org. Tri-Cities Prep is the only Catholic college-prep high school in the area.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

The Spiritual Exercises help us want to share everything we have with Jesus our beloved, as he shares everything with us. St. Ignatius, in a vision at La Sorta, Spain, saw Jesus as all heart, full of mercy, compassion and love. Throughout Christian history, Jesus' heart has been a sign of his divine love. From it flows all love, including family peace, consolation during stress, and mercy for sinners. Because of this realization, devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is important to, and a part of Ignatian Spirituality. Jesuits are some of the most active promoters of the devotion to the Sacred Heart.

For this year's participants, the next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be May 8 at 9 a.m. online. The theme will be the Gifts of the Spiritual Exercises. To learn more about SEEL or watch the presentation after the meeting, please visit <http://spiritual-exercises.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality:

Chapter 15 of the Rule of St. Benedict is titled 'The Times for Saying Alleluia.' We have entered the greatest of those times: from Easter until Pentecost, the Divine Office makes liberal, joyful use of alleluia! It's added to antiphons and responses, to hymns, and is often said twice. May the joy of the Easter season fill us all!

If Benedictine spirituality interests you, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Meditate with the Church on 1 Peter 2:9-10 taken from Office of Evening Prayer I, Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday):

"You are 'a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people he claims for his own to proclaim the glorious works' of the One who called you from darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were no people, but now you are God's people; once there was no mercy for you, but now you have found mercy."

Reflect on the following portion of Preface II of Easter:

Through him the children of light rise to eternal life and the halls of the heavenly Kingdom are thrown open to the faithful; for his Death is our ransom from death, and in his rising the life of all has risen.

In and Around the Diocese

COVID-19 Vaccine Information: the vaccine is an important tool in ending this pandemic and getting our lives back to normal. We encourage those who are eligible to get vaccinated!

Information on the vaccine can be found here: <https://www.doh.wa.gov/Emergencies/COVID19/vaccine>. Availability and eligibility are increasing and you can be vaccinated in the Tri-Cities at many locations.

This website will help you make an appointment at the vaccination clinic at the Benton Franklin fairground in Kennewick: <https://prepmo.doh.wa.gov/>. Appointments there are available and administration of the vaccine is efficient. Other local pharmacies and medical providers are also distributing vaccines. Visit <https://vaccinelocator.doh.wa.gov/> to find these providers.

If you do not have online access, or need assistance, call the WA State COVID-19 Assistance Hotline: 1-800-525-0127 or 1-888-856-5816, then press #.

Note: the U.S. Catholic Bishops tell us that the vaccine is morally acceptable. Its benefits far outweigh concerns about its development and testing. If you have concerns, please visit: <https://yakimadiocese.org/2021/03/03/new-vaccine-morally-permissible-vacuna-nueva-esta-permitida-03-03-2021/> or the shortened version: <http://bit.ly/317Unpv>.

Other options for televised and online Masses: If you'd like to watch Mass from the Diocese of Yakima, celebrated by Bishop Tyson or priests in Yakima, tune in to the local ABC affiliate channels 35 or 42 (KAPP-KVEW TV) on Sunday mornings at 6:30 a.m. Rebroadcasts of these Masses are available on the diocesan website (www.yakimadiocese.org) and Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/yakima.diocese>).

A Note from the Serra Club of the Tri-Cities:

"Peace be with you. As the Father has sent Me, so I send you." Are you considering to be a priest, sister or brother who proclaims the truth and peace of Jesus Christ?
