From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Vincentian Spirituality, Friendship and Service

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus reads the words of scripture: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor."

As Vincentians, we put our faith into action. The Vincentian vocation calls us to participate personally and directly in helping the needy by person-to-person contact and by the gift of our hearts and friendship, within the communal spirit of a Conference of lay persons each inspired by the same vocation. St. Vincent de Paul said: "The poor have much to teach you. You have much to learn from them."

Is God calling you to join the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in 2022? Pick-up the "Welcome to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul" tri-fold in the foyer of the church for more information.

Learn more about the Vincentian Way by contacting Roberta at 509-528-5535.

Sunday Reflection

Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

During this part of the Spiritual Exercises, we pray about Jesus' life so we can understand who he is, how he calls us, and how we can follow. This means we adopt a spiritual attentiveness, watching and waiting on God's lead. We notice the ebb and flow of our feelings and moods. We are a servant following our master, Jesus. The question we seek to answer during this time is "What more does God want of me? What more can I do to respond to God's love for me?"

The next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be February 12, at 9 a.m. online. The theme will be Discernment. To learn more about SEEL please visit <http://spiritual-exercises.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality

In our reading of the Holy Rule, we're reviewing Chapter 3, The Tools for Good Works, and the next two chapters: Obedience and Restraint of Speech. The Tools are basically a merger of the commandments from the Old and New Testaments, and the exhortations toward Obedience and Restraint are as straightforward as their titles imply. The three concepts are united in one motivation: love. We serve God and his creation by following his commandments and listening to each other. We can't listen if we're talking!

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Excerpts from Office of Readings from the Carmelite Proper of the LOH; Institutum Carmelitanum, 1993

Blessed Titus Brandsma (killed in 1942 in Dachau), Memorial July 27; Intro. to Het lijden vergoddelijkt

Mary, who kept all God's words in her heart, in the fullness of grace granted her, understood the great value of suffering. While the apostles fled, she went out to meet the Savior on the way to Calvary and stood beneath the cross, in order to share his grief and shame to the end. And she carried him to the grave, firmly trusting that he would rise.

We object when he hands us the chalice of his suffering. It is so difficult for us to resign ourselves to suffering. To rejoice in it strikes us as heroic. What is the value of our offering of self if we unite ourselves each morning only in word and gesture, rather than in thought and will, to that offering which we, together with the Church, make of him with whom we are in the one body?

Responsory: God forbid that I glory except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. We preach Christ crucified, to others a stumbling block and a folly, but to us the power and the wisdom of God.

Icon Blessings Tuesday, Jan. 25: Our parish has received a gift of two icons, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton and St. John Neumann, written specifically for our parish by a local iconographer. These saints are important to our parish because relics of both saints are in our altar. To celebrate their feast days (January 4 and 5) Fr. Edgar will bless the icons at the 8 a.m. Mass on January 25. There will be a reception afterwards. All are invited. Before their official installation, the icons will be on display during several Masses this month. Please join us on January 25 to celebrate "our" saints.

A Word from Our Pastor

"Never let evil talk pass your lips; say only the good things men need to hear, things that will really help them. Do nothing that will sadden the Holy Spirit with whom you were sealed against the day of redemption. Get rid of all bitterness, all passion and anger, harsh words, slander, and malice of every kind. In place of these, be kind to one another, compassionate, and mutually forgiving, just as God has forgiven you in Christ."
