Saturdays at 3:30 p.m. in the church
or by appointment

Welcome! If you are new in the parish, please introduce yourself after Mass and arrange to register with us; online at www.ckparish.org or in the office during business hours. We're glad you're here!

Sacrament of Baptism: is scheduled by appointment only; parents must have been registered members of the parish for at least 2 months and must participate in Baptismal Instruction (offered on the 1st Wednesday of the month in the Bride's Room).

Sacrament of the Sick: In the event of serious illness or medical emergency, Anointing and Eucharist may be arranged. Call the parish office during office hours, or the emergency number after hours. Contact the Visitation Ministry Office to arrange for home visits.

Celebration of Christian Funeral: After the death of a loved one, you may contact the Parish Office at your earliest convenience to arrange for a date and time for the funeral liturgy.

Sacrament of Marriage: Engaged couples requesting information about matrimony must contact and meet with one of the priests or deacons at least 4 months before the proposed wedding date and should expect to participate in a marriage preparation program.

Christian Initiation of Adults: Adults requesting information about full initiation into the Roman Catholic Church (the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation) may contact the RCIA Coordinator at 371-0994.

Christian Initiation of Children (CIC): We offer a program for older children who have not been baptized or received their First Communion. Call the Religious Education Office at 946-1154 for information.

More Announcements

School Roof Project: We're replacing the roof on the classroom portion of our school building. This is good news! Work began the week of June 27 and will continue into August. Please respect taped-off areas and parking closures along Long Ave. and in the school parking lot. Safe paths will be marked with green cones. For more information, contact Mike Patello at (509)-392-2194 or Clark Jodoin at (928)-208-9347.

Church access updates: We've implemented a bit of extra security for the sanctuary-level part of the church. After morning Mass on weekdays, the church doors will be locked. You're welcome to enter through the doors by the parish office.

Volunteer Appreciation

We are so blessed with the many volunteers who support our parish life. Their efforts make our environment reverent, welcoming, and comfortable. Often, they and their work, aren't seen. We'd like you to know how grateful we are for their help, and who these volunteers are.

This week, we thank the sacristans. They make sure our sanctuary and supplies are ready for Masses and other services! They keep the candles trimmed, pews tidied, vestments and linens cleaned and pressed, and resources stocked. You know, the work no one notices unless you don't do it. Sunday Reflection

What We Store in the Barn

I once knew a godly woman who had truly tasted the bitterness of this earthly life. This woman knew pain. She knew sacrifice. She knew hard labor and loss, including the death of a cherished child. She worked each day at a low-paying job, waiting patiently for her 65th birthday, when she could retire and devote herself full-time to her grandchildren. She crossed off the dwindling days on her calendar like a first grader waiting for Christmas.

Ninety-eight days before she was set to retire, she died suddenly. Her name was erased from the schedule at work and penciled over with that of her replacement hire.

All things are vanity.

I think we all know someone like this, don't we? If the details aren't exactly the same, the outline of the story is: someone labors "with wisdom and knowledge and skill," in the words of Ecclesiastes. And what profit comes to him? Sorrow and grief all his days. The proverbial barn filled with harvest and left to rot.

But I'll let you in on a secret: this isn't a sad story. I've only told you part of it.

This woman heard, daily, the voice of God, and against it she never hardened her heart, whatever news it brought her. This woman loved as hard as she worked. Every action was a form of evangelization. To talk to her was to feel the embrace of Christ.

As much as she waited for that retirement that never came, it was never the harvest in her barn.

This is what it means to be a true steward: to seek what is above.

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Vincentian Spirituality, Friendship and Service

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable about the rich man who selfishly stored all his grain and goods only to die and not enjoy his abundance anyway. What we struggle all our lives to learn is that life does not consist of possessions nor our perceived security, but of being possessed by God.

This week, as you give your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you demonstrate that life does not consist of possessions. Members comfort our neighbors when they are grieving for loved ones who have died or just sharing their own health journeys which often keep them from working. Thank you for your support. The financial aid is needed, but the personal visits allow us to provide our neighbors with hope that someone does care about them.

Contact Carmen, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 521-0383 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

Christ the King Catholic School

Please contact the school office at 509-946-6158 for information about our parish school.

Have a safe and restful summer!

Sausage Fest!

Sausage Fest is coming back!

September 16 - 17!!

Sausage Fest began at Christ the King Catholic School to foster a community spirit with the parish, to raise funds to help the school, and to promote the school and parish within the area. Our school festival has grown to be the third largest event in the Tri-Cities! We are looking forward to hosting the 45th Christ the King Sausage Fest this September!

It takes many volunteers to bring this event to fruition. With a lot of hard work, many, many laughs and a rewarding sense of accomplishment you too can help, knowing that you assisted many people to have fun while also helping to keep school tuition costs down.

We have a few open chair positions:

- Manpower Co Chair- This person will be the assistant to the chair and handle scheduling volunteers.
- Security Chairperson - apply/manage required permits, arrange for police support and other outside help, help set up roadblocks, and patrol Fest to assure everyone stays safe.
- Alumni Chairperson- Manage the Alumni booth, display memorabilia. Greet our Alumni members, provide details on current school related events and needs.

These positions – like all Fest chair positions – come with past chairs who will provide you with all the information you need to succeed. Please don't hesitate to contact us with your interest in any of these positions or if you have questions on volunteering for Fest. If you wish to chair a booth or area that you had previously managed please reach if you have not already confirmed.

Please reach out to :

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

Are you interested in growing closer to Christ, improving your prayer life, or talking with a spiritual director? The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL Tri-Cities) could be just what you need.

This year, SEEL begins on September 10 online through the Zoom App. After a few months, we may meet in person at the Parish of the Holy Spirit in Kennewick, while continuing with Zoom meetings for those who can't attend in person. All future group meetings will be the second Saturday of every month from 9 to 11 a.m.

During the Spiritual Exercises, participants learn to pray with various prayer methods such as meditation, contemplation, imaginative prayer, the Examen, and discernment. We provide prayer materials and a trained spiritual director to assist you. We ask that participants attend monthly group meetings, pray daily for an hour, and make a monthly donation (if possible) to help fund training and equipment.

Deadline for application is September 1, 2022. Space is limited, so please apply early.

For more information or to download our brochure or application, visit <http://spiritual-exercises.com>; email info@spiritual-exercises.com. For questions or to talk to someone about this please call Ellen at 509-628-8626 or Nancy at 509-531-8903.

Praying the Eucharistic Prayers

Most of us have not heard all of the Eucharistic Prayer options that are available. Eucharist Prayer R1, for Reconciliation, is a source for reflection on God's Mercy.

It is truly right and just that we should always give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God. For you do not cease to spur us on to possess a more abundant life and, being rich in mercy, you constantly offer pardon and call on sinners to trust in your forgiveness alone.

Never did you turn away from us, and, though time and again we have broken your covenant, you have bound the human family to yourself through Jesus your Son, our Redeemer, with a new bond of love so tight that it can never be undone. Even now you set before your people a time of grace and reconciliation, and, as they turn back to you in spirit, you grant them hope in Christ Jesus and a desire to be of service to all, while they entrust themselves more fully to the Holy Spirit.

And so, filled with wonder, we extol the power of your love, and, proclaiming our joy at the salvation that comes from you, we join in the heavenly hymn of countless hosts, as without end we acclaim: Holy, Holy, Holy...

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.
