From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives sight to the blind man. Through grace we are also transformed from not seeing to seeing and then Jesus sends us to help others see and to believe.

When our members visit a neighbor in need we are letting them know that we do see them and that our Christ the King community wants to help them in their time of need. Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brings joy, peace, forgiveness, mercy and kindness to the hurting hearts of the poor. Thank you for sharing your financial gifts with all those who struggle in our community. You can contribute using on-line giving at: <https://osvhub.com/ck-parish/giving/funds> or by putting a check made out to Christ the King Church with "St. Vincent de Paul" on the memo line (or cash in an envelope marked with "St. Vincent de Paul") in the collection basket.

Contact Carmen, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 521-0383 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

During Lent, those who are praying through the Spiritual Exercises want to walk with Jesus as he carries his cross. Jesus shows us his wounds and invites us to touch them, to cry for them, to let his suffering break our hearts. As our hearts open more fully to suffering we begin to see the wounds of Christ revealed in poverty, exploitation, or oppression. We are invited to walk with Jesus into hard painful places that we see around us. Are you willing?

For this year's participants, the next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be April 15 at 9 a.m. online. The theme will be the Resurrection and Learning to Love Like God. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://spiritual-exercises.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality

Mr. Rogers once taught a lesson on his children's show about a man who was blind. He explained to his audience about the man's condition: 'he can't see with his eyes.' The man born blind in today's Gospel likewise couldn't see with his eyes, but he 'saw' quite a bit: the hypocrisy of the Pharisees, for one, and the power of Christ who healed him. St. Benedict tells us to 'listen with the ears of our heart.' Perhaps he would also tell us to 'see with the eyes of our mind.'

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Praying portions of the Divine Office:

Office of Readings from the LOH, 1976 Catholic Book Pub. Co.;

Holy Saturday: From an ancient homily on Holy Saturday. (Contemplate on these reflections during Lent)

I am your God, who for your sake have become your son. Out of love for you and for your descendants I now by my own authority command all who are held in bondage to come forth, all who are in darkness to be enlightened, all who are sleeping to arise. I order you, O sleeper, to awake. I did not create you to be held a prisoner in hell. Rise from the dead, for I am the life of the dead. Rise up, work of my hands, you who were created in my image. Rise, let us leave this place, for you are in me and I am in you: together we form only one person and we cannot be separated.

Eucharistic Devotion

We offer Exposition, a time for Adoration, and Benediction after the 8:00 a.m. Mass, until noon, on Thursdays.

Sunday Reflection

The 6 Characteristics of an Everyday Stewardship for Lent – Gracious

Vacations can be great times for refueling the body and renewing bonds within a family and between friends. No matter how good the vacation was, it is almost always good to get home when it is over. Sleeping in our own bed, taking a shower in our own bathroom, and resting on our own couch are some of the aspects of home we can miss while on the road. That's why encountering truly gracious and hospitable people while we are away is so important. These people are not family, but they sure can provide for us a glimpse of home. They can be waiters at a restaurant, desk hosts at a hotel, or even Uber drivers. They enrich our lives if for only a moment, yet that moment can make all the difference.

When disciples of Jesus Christ act in a gracious manner to all those they meet, they provide a glimpse of home. This home is not in a house in a particular location, but it is a home prepared for all of us for eternity. No matter how comfortable we may be in our earthly homes, it truly pales in comparison to eternity with God. In that heavenly home, there is no darkness, only light. There are no tears, only joy. There is no hate, only love.

We are ambassadors for heaven by how we offer ourselves to others. Our stewardship of hospitality allows others to see a glimpse of what God promises to us. Unless we truly step up and act in a gracious manner, will those we encounter ever know the Truth? I hate it when I am on the road and fail to meet people full of joy and welcome. At least I can look forward to coming home. What do those along the way look forward to in the next life that you can't show them a glimpse of in this one?

At this Mass, Bishop Tyson will bless the holy oils used throughout the year and our priests will renew their promises of ordination. All are welcome to attend this Mass; all are encouraged to pray for our clergy.

In and Around the Diocese

A Note from the Serra Club of the Tri-Cities:

"The Lord looks on the heart." Are you called to bring the Light of Christ to the world through a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life?

Please continue to pray for the clergy, religious sisters and brothers, seminarians, novices and those who are discerning to serve the Lord in His vineyard especially during this time of Lent.
