From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Vincentian Spirituality, Friendship and Service

Today, we celebrate "Good Shepherd Sunday" where we reflect on the care and love of Jesus for us.

Did You Know? The Vincentian Family includes the Daughters of Charity founded by St. Vincent de Paul and St. Louise de Marillac (1591-1660). "Louise was a wife, mother, widow, teacher, nurse, social worker and founder of the Daughters of Charity. Louise was a woman with deep faith in divine providence and her quest in life was to do the will of God. She knew suffering, but she also knew love." St. Louise lived the life of a good shepherd.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will show that you are indeed the disciple of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, as it will bring your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread. Thank you for your donations.

Learn more about how you can help by contacting Carmen, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 521-0383.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

Ignatian prayer opens our hearts to God's wonderful creation. All created things of this world are gifts, given to humankind to help us get to heaven. But, of course, not all things are good for a particular individual. This is where discernment comes in. We must decide what created things will take us to God, and which will lead us away. To discern that, we must be willing to let go of the things that bind us, the things we're attached to, and embrace those that will take us to divine love. Through prayer, community, and spiritual direction, Ignatian Spirituality provides the tools a person needs to understand how to do this.

For this year's participants, the last meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be May 14 at 9 a.m. online. The theme will be Gifts of the Spiritual Exercises. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <http://spiritual-exercises.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality

St. Benedict is a wise observer of human nature. In Chapter 1 of the Rule of St. Benedict, he praises qualities that enhance the strength of a community: stability, obedience, and growth in the spiritual life. In contrast, distraction and deception weaken us. Although he is describing the types of monks, his assessment applies to any group.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Titus Brandsma to be canonized May 15, 2022

In July 2016, the diocesan inquiry into the presumed miracle obtained through the intercession of Blessed Titus took place in the Diocese of Palm Beach (Florida, USA). The presumed miracle was the healing of Fr. Michael Driscoll, O. Carm., from advanced malignant metastatic melanoma that spread to the lymph nodes. In November 2020, the Medical Consultation, appointed by the Vatican Congregation of the Causes of the Saints, recognized the impossibility of a scientific explanation for the cure of Fr. Driscoll from cancer. The cure was attributed to the intercession of Blessed Titus Brandsma. On May 25, 2021, the Congress of Theological Consultants recognized the miracle. The same opinion was reached by the cardinals and bishops in the Ordinary Session held on November 9, 2021. Finally, on November 25, 2021, Pope Francis authorized the Congregation of the Causes of the Saints to promulgate the decrees regarding the miracle attributed to the intercession of Blessed Titus Brandsma opening the way to canonization. On March 4, 2022, during the Ordinary Public Consistory, Pope Francis confirmed the opinion of the cardinals and bishops, announcing the date of Fr. Titus' canonization.

Eucharistic Miracles

Eucharistic Miracles of the World!

St. Stanislaus Kostka (Poland 1550-1568) is our focus this week. He was living with a protestant nobleman, who would not allow a Catholic priest to visit. "At about the age of seventeen, Stanislaus became gravely ill. He belonged to the Fraternity of St Barbara, whose members trust their patroness to grant them the grace of Communion at the point of death...One night he awakened...exclaiming 'Here is St Barbara! Here she is with two angels! She's bringing me the Blessed Sacrament!' And so it was, the angels inclined towards him and gave him Holy Communion...a few days later he awoke perfectly healed." (The Eucharistic Miracles of the World, 331). St. Stanislaus is known as the patron saint of novices, youth, young students and seminarians.

New miracles are on display in the Gathering Space including some from Avignon, France; Seefeld, Austria; and Breda, Netherlands! Be sure to stop by.

Thank you to everyone who came to our first two talks. Save the date for our third final talk on Eucharistic Miracles, Friday June 10 at 6:30 p.m. in the church.

In and Around the Diocese

A Note from the Serra Club of the Tri-Cities:

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS is today.

Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for vocations to the priesthood and religious life? Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead. Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister. Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.
