St. Vincent de Paul Food Baskets and Parish Sharing Tree

If you have been reading the bulletin, you know that the Food Basket and Sharing Tree will be celebrated "pandemic style" again this year. But pandemic style or not, the families we serve (St. Vincent de Paul families, Elijah Family Homes children and Catholic Charities seniors, foster kids and others) will still be in need.

Due to COVID, we must eliminate all gathering events that support these two projects. The school children will not be collecting food, parish families will not be collecting toys and games, or going out to deliver them. Rather, BOTH PRO-JECTS ARE GOING ALL GIFT CARDS. Instead of food and toiletries, we will provide gift cards and rely on each of our needy families to shop for their own holiday groceries. Instead of toys, games, and other gifts, we will provide gift cards to parents and rely on them to shop for their children.

We hope that instead of shopping for food or toys that you will instead, purchase gift cards that we can distribute safely on your behalf. Although it won't be as much fun, we have tried to make participating as easy and contact-free as possible. If you use online giving (<https://osvhub.com/CK-parish/funds>), we have set up two accounts -- Food Baskets and Sharing Tree -- so that you can donate right from your computer to either one or both. Our elves will use your donations to purchase the gift cards we need most.

If you buy your own gift cards, we are asking for denominations of $25 or less. We really appreciate gift cards from grocery stores, especially WinCo, or grocery/gift stores like Fred Meyer, Walmart, or Target. Please make sure the amount on each card appears somewhere on the card. If you attend Mass in person, you can give your cards to an Usher/Greeter before Mass. You can also bring them to the church office, drop them in the silver "MAIL" slot that is in the wall to the right of the office door or send them through the mail to CK Church, 1111 Stevens Dr., Richland, WA 99354. CK students can turn them in at school.

However you choose to give, we need your donation early in order to allow families time to shop.

WE MUST HAVE YOUR DONATION NO LATER THAN SUNDAY, DECEMBER 5

If you have any questions, please contact Yvonne Sherman of the Parish Council at ysherman66@gmail.com or 539-2523.

Missals for 2022: Many of you purchased a personal copy, either in print or in electronic form, of the Breaking Bread missal for 2021. The missal gives you the Mass readings and music tunes and lyrics.

This year, we will have a limited number of copies in the pews, beginning the first Sunday in Advent (Nov. 28). If you'd rather have your own copy, Breaking Bread 2022 should be available from Oregon Catholic Press (www.ocp.org) in mid November.

Sunday Reflection

Long Live the King

Did you know that you can become royalty, for the right price? It's true — for the low, low cost of $50, you, too, can purchase a 12-square-inch souvenir plot of Scottish land and call yourself "Laird So-and-so." Now, this lordship or ladyship doesn't come with the ability to boss anyone around, but maybe your friends will be impressed enough to bend the knee.

My point is, we've all got our own little fiefdoms — folks or communities for which we have a feeling of responsibility. Maybe we're not their "king," but most of us have those we think of as "our people."

Now, in this world, people lay themselves down for their kings. History is riddled with the bodies of men, young and old — and plenty of women and children, too — who were casualties of wars waged by men in power, men who never had to shed their own blood. But in the next world, the King dies for his people. This is leadership par excellence — the leadership of someone whose love is greater than his ambition.

We are all leaders of a sort. On the parish level, you have the obvious roles — serving on pastoral council, spearheading the capital campaign, leading the Altar Guild. But you also have the quiet ones who lead from the wings — the janitor who can always be relied upon to do his job, or the volunteer librarian who puts in extra hours on the weekends.

There is a saying — find your people. I say, find your people, and find a way to lay yourself down for them, in imitation of the greatest King that ever was.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

In his Spiritual Exercises, St. Ignatius outlined a prayer called the Daily Examen. It has five simple points, but is so useful and powerful that Ignatius told his men that the Examen was most important. The five points are: 1) Be grateful for God's blessings. 2) Ask the Holy Spirit to help. 3) Review your day to discover times when you noticed God, and the times when you left God out. 4) Express sorrow for your sins and ask for God's forgiveness. 5) Pray for the grace to be open to God tomorrow. The Examen takes about five minutes to pray, yet makes a huge difference in the lives of anyone who prays it regularly. Go ahead and try it yourself.

The next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be Dec. 13 at 9 a.m. online. The theme will be the Kingdom of God. To learn more about SEEL visit <http://spiritual-exercises.com>

Benedictine Spirituality

The first paragraph of the Rule of St. Benedict concludes with these words: 'give up your own will, once and for all, and armed with the strong and noble weapons of obedience... do battle for the true King, Christ the Lord.' The Latin root of the word 'obedience' is 'listen.' Jesus says at the end of today's Gospel reading: 'Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.' We further the Kingdom of God by listening, to each other and most of all to God.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Excerpts from St. Joseph, Patron of Carmel: by Prior General, Miceál O'Neill, O Carm. and Superior General, Saverio Cannistrà, OCD; The Sword, V80, #2, 2020

Today's World:

In a world where there is need for "concreteness and the sense of mystery," in a world in which we tend to flee from the bonds of stable relationships and commitments and to revert to a kind of sterile narcissism, Joseph shows us the way of self-denial, daily responsibility, the silent dedication to the care and growth of family. Any father of a family will want to heal the wounds of his own home. Our patron helps us to see the need to heal the wounds of humanity, and wounds of the Church. There is no Church, there is no Carmel without people who, forgetting themselves, work day and night to give others a sure foundation in which they can trust. These people work away from the limelight, bearing in their own hearts all their own concerns and anxieties, very often, not seeing the fruits or even the goal, trusting only in the one from whom their paternity comes and takes its name. These are the people who will always find in St. Joseph their patron and model.

A Note from the Serra Club of the Tri-Cities:

"My kingdom is not from this world." Are you being called to proclaim the glorious reign of Christ the King as a priest, deacon or in consecrated life?

Please pray for vocations. For more information about the Serra Club, contact Jean Foust (302-9923), Liz Johnston (308-1861); Bill Davis (438-2584); Mikal Barnett (586-0274); Juanita Heinen (531-3476); or Mark Schouville (735-7222).
