Announcements

Job opening: Early Childhood Religious Education Coordinator.

We're looking for someone to manage our Early Childhood Religious Education Program for 3 year-olds through first graders. Classes meet during the 9:30 a.m. Mass on Sundays. The ECRE leader supports the volunteer teachers in the program, assists with Vacation Bible School, and supports the Religious Education Team. This position also coordinates the Flash Alert for the parish. Part-time, hourly, 20 hours per week, year round. For a full job description and application, contact the parish office.

We Really Need Ushers! Monsignor Champoux would like to resume routine collections at each of the Masses, soon. In order to do this, we'll need additional volunteers for the indoor Masses on Saturday evening and Sunday morning. Please consider your availability to help during these Masses. Please contact Kathy Leonard at 208-351-7628 or dleonard5455@charter.net to volunteer for this very important ministry. God Bless you.

Indoor Mass Attendance Protocols: We are continuing to do our best to keep everyone as safe as possible. We require everyone at Mass to wear a mask, even those who are vaccinated. Please take care to sit six feet away from others not in your household, and allow space as you process to Communion.

If you have not been vaccinated, please do so. The vaccine, along with masking, is our best weapon against this disease. And as always, if you are ill with anything contagious, please stay home!

A Note from Our St. Vincent de Paul Society:

Does a family you know need assistance? Please call 946-1325 to let us know.

Thank you to those who have donated so generously. Your kindness is greatly appreciated! God bless you!

Sunday Reflection

If Heaven were like Harvard

There's no getting around it: life on earth can seem easier if you're rich. Most of the bodily and material needs a person could have are fulfilled if you've got a little bit of money behind you. So why doesn't this same theory apply to entering the kingdom of Heaven? Why isn't Heaven like an Ivy League school, where a connection and a hefty tuition check might open a lot of doors?

When you think about it, the virtues required to enter Heaven — things like charity and justice and courage — should be even closer within the grasp of those who never had to worry about where their food is coming from. In theory, your capacity for good works should only increase with the resources at your disposal.

The same is true for stewardship potential. Let's say I've got a lot of talent. Maybe I've got a lot of free time. On paper, it should be easier for me to give freely of these gifts, because I have the luxury that eluded the widow and her two coins: I can see my ample gift being put into action, when so many can only offer what they have and remind themselves that God sees it and appreciates it.

But here we get into the mess of humanity: if we have a lot of something, it means we have a lot of something we could use any way we want. And then we hear the whisper of the serpent: Think of what this (money, time, talent) could do for you.

May we pray for God to give us the heart of the widow, no matter our resources.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

To discern God's will, the first thing we must do is practice the first commandment: "You shall have no other gods before me." When we take something that is not Godly, and make it most important, that goes against the First Commandment. The Catechism says: "idolatry not only refers to false pagan worship. It remains a constant temptation to faith." The Spiritual Exercises help each person recognize the things that he or she is overly attached to, the things that take the place of God, or keep a person from turning to God. For instance, we might choose comfort and sleep when called to prayer, or excuse our attachment to food, money or shopping as normal and cultural, or perhaps even necessary for mental health. Throughout this section of the retreat, people are praying that God open their eyes to the things they are attached to, and praying for the grace to turn to God instead.

The next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be Nov. 13 at 9 a.m. online. The theme will be the Sin and Sinfulness. To learn more about SEEL or watch the presentation after the meeting, please visit <http://spiritual-exercises.com>

Benedictine Spirituality

Today's readings speak about giving up possessions. St. Benedict forbids private ownership; all that his monks need is provided by the monastery. In this way, he builds a community in which each one gives and receives from the others, just as Jesus assures us that our heavenly Father sees what we need and provides it.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Excerpts from St. Joseph, Patron of Carmel: by Prior General, Miceál O'Neill, O Carm. and Superior General, Saverio Cannistrà, OCD; The Sword, V80, #2, 2020

Devotion to St. Joseph among Carmelites had liturgical overtones from the very beginning. In later times, and right up to the present day, we find also a Eucharistic dimension in Carmelite devotion to St. Joseph, as the one who held in his hands the bread of life, our spiritual food and drink.

In truth, it is impossible to say exactly when people began to celebrate the feast of St. Joseph in Carmelite churches. In all probability, as early as the 14th century, there was strong local devotion. But by the 15th century we begin to see a Mass and a Divine Office proper to St. Joseph. The Flemish Carmelite, Arnold Bostius, in 1476, stated that Carmelites had a solemn celebration of his feast. The proper of the liturgy in honour of St. Joseph in the Carmelite tradition is thought by historians and liturgists to be the first monument of the Latin Church to the dignity of St. Joseph.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

In and Around the Diocese

40 Days for Life: the fall prayer campaign to end abortion in our area runs until Oct. 31. Participants pray peacefully near the Kennewick Planned Parenthood facility from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. each day. For more information, contact Casey Belew at 509-440-3665 or 40daysforlife.kennewick@gmail.com; or visit 40 Days for Life TriCities.

Bring hope to life by helping low-income, elderly neighbors with transportation.

Volunteer Services of Catholic Charities Serving Central Washington needs drivers to help clients get to the grocery store, health appointments, and more. Volunteer for a few hours per week to make a big difference for someone in our community. For information on how to apply for this opportunity, please contact Patty George at 509-943-2590, ext. 2112 or pgeorge@catholiccharitiescw.org

In and Around the Diocese

A Note from the Serra Club of the Tri-Cities:

"Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" If you ask the Lord this question in prayer, are you ready to respond with a joyful "yes" or will you turn from Him with a heavy, unyielding heart? Consider following Christ more closely as a priest or in consecrated life.

National Vocation Awareness Week is Nov. 7-13, 2021. This week is dedicated to promoting vocations to ordained ministry and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those considering one of these particular vocations.
