Annual St. Vincent de Paul Second Collection October 8 and 9

Your CK St. Vincent de Paul Society will be taking up a second collection on October 8 and 9. This single collection funds the work we do on your behalf, every week of the year. It has been three years since SVDP has had an "annual" collection, because parishioners have been so generous during the pandemic. But as our donations return to a more normal pace rents have increased, food is more expensive and gas prices continue to be high. As a result we need to return to the annual appeal for funds to serve our neighbors in need. Your financial contribution allows us to help our neighbors with immediate needs for basics such as utility bills, rent, transportation and food. Please pray that the money collected will be sufficient to assist with their needs for another 12 months.

We are so grateful for those of you who contribute now and throughout the year.

Synod on Synodality: Pope Francis had asked the laity in all of the dioceses around the world to answer questions about their views of the church. Many of us participated in 'listening sessions' in the spring, in which we considered those questions. Our responses were sent to Bishop Tyson, and now a report has been prepared for submission, along with reports from other dioceses, to the Holy Father.

The report for the Diocese of Yakima can be found at <https://yakimadiocese.org/2022/08/19/synod-update-key-themes-temas-claves/> and on its Facebook page.

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Vincentian Spirituality, Friendship and Service

In today's Gospel we see that prudent decisiveness means that we recognize that all our choices in daily living are really choices for eternal life. Admission into heaven is something money cannot buy. The only currency that has any value to secure our entrance is that of love.

As you donate to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering.

Contact Carmen, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 521-0383 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL Tri-Cities) program is underway.

For more information or to download our brochure or application, visit <http://spiritual-exercises.com>; email info@spiritual-exercises.com. For questions or to talk to someone about this please call Ellen at 509-628-8626 or Nancy at 509-531-8903.

Benedictine Spirituality

In the Rule of St. Benedict, we find instructions for living so as to please God. Written for monks, they can help all live mindfully and lovingly in service to God and each other. The instructions range from lofty (The Tools of Good Works, for example) to practical (such as The Clothing and Footwear of the Monks). In today's Gospel, Jesus warns against abusing positions of trust. In the chapter devoted to the Qualifications of the Monastery Cellarer, St. Benedict does the same while providing guidance in the care of all.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

The Carmelites—A Short History

Sometime in the period 1206-1214, the Patriarch Albert of Jerusalem wrote a Rule for these hermits on Mount Carmel that has remained the mainstay to Carmelites for over 800 years. The Rule was fundamentally Christocentric and, thus, all Carmelite spirituality is founded on it, giving Carmelites a characteristic way of following Christ. The hermits were told to meditate night and day on the law of the Lord and to focus on the Gospel. The Rule is rooted in Scripture, calling Carmelites to pray over it and to act upon it.

The Rule also calls for Carmelites to share the Eucharist together daily, if possible, and to build a chapel that is central to their cells. These original Carmelite lay hermits dedicated their chapel to Mary, the Mother of God. Mary, as well as Elijah, became their models for a life of contemplative prayer and action.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

Sunday Reflection

Fixing the Scales

Most people don't intend on being selfish. The reality of selfishness usually lies in the grey shades of our decision-making. We would never go out of our way to kick a homeless person begging by the highway exit. We would never steal money from our parish collection plate.

But would we drive past the homeless person without even extending a thought or a prayer toward his need? Would we justify stinginess in time, talent, and treasure because of our own comfort? We all have been guilty of transgressions such as these in the past. We will fall again in the future.

Most of the evil in this world can be traced back to a feeling of entitlement that lurks deep within each of us — a frantic concern for our own good that we find difficult to shake. The same instinct that compelled Eve to reach for the fruit that would give her the knowledge of good and evil still compels people to focus on what they are owed, on what they have "earned," on what they have "coming to them." We are so tempted to fix the scales. We are so tempted to keep score.

We would do well to remember that our God is not a God who keeps score. He is not a God who acts entitled or who tacks on extra dues, taking as much as He can get. He is a God who seats the lowly with princes. He is a God who seeks avenues for reconciliation and mercy.
