From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us, "This is my commandment: love one another as I have loved you...You are my friends if you do what I command you."

Our members recently visited a young man living in a recovery house who was very discouraged because he had learned the day prior to our visit that the job he was set to begin on May 5th had literally gone up in flames. He knew he needed help to pay his rent for May because he wanted to stay in the house to continue his recovery with the help of the other residents, so he reached out to us for assistance. When others suffer, God calls us to be a friend and to love. By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you fulfill this commandment.

Contact Bruce, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 627-7295 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life are designed for lay persons with busy and varied lives. The Exercises are flexible; each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. Participants learn many types of prayer including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation and meditation. The Spiritual Exercises change people; they are powerful. By delving deeper into self through prayer, the pray-er discovers God within, in a new, deeper way. People of all faiths are welcome.

For this year’s participants, the last meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be May 11 at 9 a.m. online. The theme will be Gifts of the Spiritual Exercises. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality:

In Chapter 72 of the Rule of St. Benedict, we read that ‘to their fellow monks they show the pure love of brothers; to God, loving fear; to their abbot, unfeigned and humble love.’ In this way the monks meet Christ’s commandment in today’s Gospel: Love one another.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Ten Day Spiritual Retreat by Titus Brandsma; taken from Essays on Titus Brandsma; Carmelite Media 2004 pages 247-261

Day XI of Retreat: Closing

Consecration to Our Queen and Mother

We must be resolved not to lose any of the glory that the Lord has reserved for us. Our Lady must keep our place for us and remind us when we tend to leave the path that leads there. May she lead us as a mother does her children. Everything we do, everything we have, let us place it all in the hands of Our Lady. Let her keep and preserve it for us, showing us the finality of everything in our life. The Star of the Sea, the fixed Star, she shows us the path to take in life; an ever shining exemplar.

The Gate of Heaven! Guided by her hand, our entry is guaranteed and sure. A filial dialogue with our mother: “Show yourself to be our mother” We wish to be your sons and daughters in the strictest sense

Day X of Retreat: Final Meditation (part 1 of 2)

We should see the Mass as the expression of our sacrifice to God and Holy Communion as its complement. “Do this in memory of me” (Lk 22:19; 1 Cor 11:24).

At the Last Supper he gave himself to us as food. On the cross he finalized his sacrifice, which is renewed in the Mass.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

Sunday Reflection

As I Love You

This week my children were learning about energy. We set up an experiment with toy cars — one was placed in front of another, and a third was pushed into the two stationary ones.

The forward motion caused the front car to move, but not much. "Most of the energy goes into the car in the middle, not the car on the end," my daughter concluded.

I asked her why she seems to have so much energy, and I seem to have so little.

"Because you're old," she replied confidently.

Most days I feel like that first car, barreling at life with all my energy and love and good intentions, only to have it almost entirely absorbed by the proverbial middle car. It's so easy to be discouraged. The devil so badly wants us to feel discouraged.

But the law of love is not unlike the law of conservation of energy. Love is neither created nor destroyed. It is only transferred from one form to another. And yes, sometimes it certainly seems like it disappears. It appears to get lost between my hands and the plate of dinner that goes uneaten or evaporates off my lips as words I fear are never heard. It is spat upon as a commandment the world would prefer I do not keep.

But we are not called to simply love one another — to love when it seems effective and productive and appreciated. We are called to love as Christ loved: recklessly, selflessly, and yes, even without logic. We are called to love with a love that doesn't give up and is never withdrawn. A love that doesn't fear death or the world's hatred. A love that stands willing to argue, to be reviled, to be dismissed.

We are called to be that first car, hurtling ourselves against a world that isn't ready to accept or understand us. And we trust that, even when we can't see how, the love that seems to disappear simply changes forms.

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you." — John 15:12
