Sunday Reflection

A Deserted Place

In one of my favorite shows, "Parks and Recreation," there is a scene where one of the characters, Jerry, is tasked with stuffing hundreds of envelopes with flyers as part of his volunteer work for a local city council campaign.

Jerry's efficient, almost mechanical completion of the job amazes his coworkers, who gather to watch in awe while he folds, inserts, seals, and stamps — over and over again. After several hours, the huge pile of envelopes is finally ready for mailing ... and Jerry realizes that he has stuffed them all with the wrong piece of paper.

"I always say, it ain't government work unless you do it twice," he quips as he restarts the task.

In any work, no matter how worthy or fulfilling it is, there is a point where the task transforms into mere routine. It can happen with anything: ministry, marriage, parenthood, even prayer. There is no shame in this. It doesn't mean that we don't enjoy these pursuits or feel passion for the mission inherent in them.

It only means that we are human, and we get tired.

When the Apostles return from their travels, Jesus recognizes their exhaustion. He encourages them to "come away to a deserted place." He inhabits a human body, so he knows the weariness to which it is subject. He knows what it is to be tired, to be hungry. He knows that it's hard to do the work when your body is failing you.

It's important for us to recognize those times when Jesus is calling us to a deserted place — and it's important for us to follow him there, even if we are pursued by feelings of doubt and guilt, just as the Apostles were followed by crowds hungry for their ministry.

Solitude is not selfishness. Contemplation is not idleness. To withdraw does not mean to run away.

The work we do — whatever it is — deserves our whole strength. If we have lost that, there is only one place we are sure to find it again.

"He said to them, 'Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.'" — Mark 6:31

Comings and Goings

Congratulations to those recently baptized:
Amelia Esme Ramos Acosta, Everett Foss, Maximiliano Antonio Ochoa, and Mila Elena Pimentel

Condolences to the families and friends of those for whom we have recently had funerals:

Rosemary Foley and Patricia Schweppe.

More Announcements

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED to help with flowers and decorations for the church. Join our friendly team committed to creating a welcoming space that gives glory to God. Serve a little or a lot; we have many opportunities! You can sign up for tasks by following this QR code to SignUpGenius.com and entering CKFlowerGroup@gmail.com in the search bar.

Our Flower Committee is also looking for a dedicated leader or co-leader for our volunteers. If you can help us (and if QR codes aren't your thing and you'd like more information), email CKFlowerGroup@gmail.com.

The Chosen - Season 4

We finally have the final episodes for Season 4. Come and watch it with us and have an opportunity to discuss and share afterward.

Episode 7 - Tuesday July 23

Episode 8 - Tuesday July 30

All meetings will be from 7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. in the Gathering Space. If you have any questions, please contact Carl Sarrazolla at csarrazo@tivera.com.

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples to "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." St. Vincent de Paul, a great man of action, was also a contemplative. His contemplation of God's love overflowed into practical love for the poor.

The primary purpose of the Society is our own growth in holiness, and while our person-to-person service is our primary means towards this growth, our spiritual practices, like Vincent and Frédéric before us, include "devotion to the Eucharist" [Rule, Part I, 2.2]

We are called not only to stand with the poor, but on our Home Visits, to sit with them; to be present with them. It is through our presence, not simply our actions, that our Home Visits, like Eucharistic Adoration, become acts of love and devotion to God's beloved Son. Please say a special prayer for the poor and forgotten, as you attend Mass or Eucharistic Adoration, as well as when you make your donation to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Have you considered joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring God's love to the poor? Contact Bruce, the CK SVdP Conference President, at (509) 627-7295 to learn more about the CK Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

SAVE THE DATE! Sausage Fest is September 20 and 21 this year!

Food, Fun, Family: Fest!

Happy Summer CK Parishioners! Planning for Sausage Fest 48 is well under way, and (as always) we're looking for help filling some open chair positions.

The following are critical to this year's success:

- Hamburger Co-Chair
- Sausage Co-Chair
- Food Co-Chair
- Funnel Cake
- Corn
- Corn Shucking
- Granny's Attic
- School Dance
- Caser Club
- Dunk Tank and several other Game Booths

Every year, the General Chairs ask for help, and every year our community steps up. It is an amazing and humbling experience. I want to thank you personally, and on behalf of the entire school community, for your dedication to Fest every year. 48 years running. What a legacy to uphold!

If you are able to help in any of the above roles (they're not scary, I promise) please email or call without delay! Caitlin Elder, cksfchair@ckschool.net (509) 497-2127.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality.

The SEEL Deadline is less than a month away. If you feel called to join this powerful and enriching prayer program, please get your application in as soon as possible. Spaces are limited and the demand is growing. As you might know from past bulletin notices, the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) is a nine-month prayer and spiritual direction program designed for lay persons. SEEL is flexible; each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. Participants learn by practice many types of prayer including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation and meditation. The Spiritual Exercises are powerful. This is a Catholic, Christian program, and people of all faiths are welcome.

If you feel called to join the Spiritual Exercises this year, please apply as soon as possible. For an application or information, please visit our website at <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

St. Paul writes in today's Epistle: 'for He is our peace...' St. Benedict quotes Psalm 33 in the Prologue to his Rule (v. 17) 'let peace be your quest and aim.' How? Again from the Prologue: 'keep your tongue free from vicious talk and your lips from all deceit; turn away from evil and do good.' Good advice always.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

The heart of a Lay Carmelite vocation:

Excerpts from "Into the Land of Carmel", Joseph Chalmers, O. Carm. 2002 (2 of 4)

Like all Carmelites, the lay Carmelite is called to some form of service, which is an integral part of the charism given to the Order by God. Lay people have the mission of transforming secular society. They can do this in many different ways according to their possibilities.

Fraternity is also an essential element of the Carmelite charism. Lay Carmelites can create community in various ways:

- * in their own families, where the domestic church is to be found;
- * in their local parish, where they worship God with their fellow parishioners and take a full part in the community activities;
- * in their lay Carmelite community in which they find support for the spiritual journey;
- * in their workplace and where they live.

The latter need the witness of those who are committed to love their neighbor as Christ taught and so contribute to the transformation of the world according to the plan of God,.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

A Note from the Serra Club

"He had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd." (from Mark 6: 30-34)

Will you respond to the hunger of Christ's sheep as a priest, permanent deacon, religious brother, or sister?

In and Around the Diocese

Olive wood carvings from the Holy Land:

Artisans will offer religious art for sale after Masses on July 27 and 28. Proceeds will help families and artisans in Bethlehem thrive, and your support will help sustain the tradition of Christian handicraft and workmanship there. Please continue to pray for the Christians of the Holy Land.
