From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Lent is a call not just to “give up something” but more importantly to “give something for the poor.” Wherever you live in the parish, there are families in need within walking distance of your home. Many of the neighbors we visit have minimum wage jobs, so if they are sick or their children are sick they lose income when staying home to care for themselves or their children.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Do you know local families affected by recent job cuts from the federal government? Please speak to them about the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and provide our help line number if they need some temporary assistance, so that together we can help those suffering and poor. Our SVdP Helpline number is (509) 946-1325.

For more information, contact Bruce, the CK SVdP President, at (509) 627-7295 or email him at bruce@svdpck.org.

Sunday Reflection

The Divine Confidante

My husband pretty much knows that if he tells me something — anything — he’s also telling my sister.

Most of us have that person that we run to when we have important information. I’m not even talking about gossip; I’m talking about stuff we just have to discuss. We joke that I don’t really know how I feel about something until I’ve run it by my sister first.

There’s not really anything wrong with that. When we’re trying to figure out how to think about something that has happened or how to react to a certain situation, it’s always helpful to get the opinion of someone we trust.

But what if we ran as quickly to discuss the situation with God as we did to discuss it with our “person?” Wouldn’t that be ideal?

After witnessing the transfiguration — an event that had to have been as confusing as it was astounding — we hear that the disciples “fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen.”

When something profound, frightening, or confusing happens, our first confidante should be God. I’m reminded of Luke 2:19: “Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart.” There is something to be said for taking a moment to keep that information sacred between ourselves and the One who can really help us confront it.

Sure, maybe we don’t understand what just happened. Maybe we’re scared by it. We don’t really know how we feel about it. And that’s totally okay. The divine confidante knows how to help us pray through that confusion, that fear.

If you’re someone’s “person” and they come to you wanting to talk, that’s great. Talk it out. But remind them — and remind yourself — to pray about it as much as you talk about it.

Let the love of those things carry you through this Lent, and beyond.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

Those who are currently praying through the Spiritual Exercises are focused on Jesus' passion during Lent. The grace they ask for is to accompany Christ through his sorrow. The Gospel reminds us that life can turn from joyous to tragic in a moment, and that consolation and desolation are important to help us know God's will. At times when we can't escape suffering, we can learn to suffer in solidarity with Jesus our Lord.

The next meeting of the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) will be April 26 at 9 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit and on Zoom online. The theme will be The Resurrection and Learning to Love Like God.. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

Benedictine Spirituality:

This week, we celebrate St. Patrick, St. Cyril of Jerusalem, and St. Joseph. Benedictines also remember the Transitus of St. Benedict on March 21. Since this feast day is always during Lent, another commemoration date – July 11 - was set when Pope Paul VI declared St. Benedict the Patron of Europe at the rededication of the Church at Monte Cassino on July 11, 1964. There's more information at <https://beingbenedictine.com/2019/03/20/transitus-of-st-benedict-happy-feast-day/>.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Venerable Mary Angeline Teresa (8 of 12)

The following prayer was found in Mother Angeline's papers: "Dearest Lord, may I see Thee today and every day in the person of the aged and sick, and while caring for them, minister to Thee.

"Though Thou hidest Thyself behind the unattractive guise of the irritable, the exacting, the unreasonable, may I still recognize Thee and say, Jesus, my Patient, how sweet it is to serve Thee.

Lord, give me this seeing faith. Then my work will never be monotonous, I will ever find a new joy in humoring and gratifying the fancies and wishes of all the aged. O beloved sick, how doubly dear you are to me when you personify Christ, and what a privilege is mine to be allowed to nurse you.

"Sweetest Lord, make me appreciate my noble vocation and its many responsibilities. Never permit me to disgrace it by giving way to coldness, unkindness, or impatience."

In this current atmosphere of uncertainty and change, Mother Angeline's elevation to Venerable speaks forcefully to the importance of protecting human life from conception to natural death. As she advocated for the elderly all her life, those who now learn of her mission must do the same and can pray to her to intercede for the elderly. Venerable Mary Angeline Teresa, Pray for us.
