In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you."

Our message to the poor who call our helpline may appear to be assistance with rent or utilities, help with a car repair or license, but our true message, delivered by our Christ the King Conference members, is to bring peace to our neighbors in need, to bring the love of Christ to them.

Thank you for your financial gifts that allow us to help those who call out to us here in Richland, West Richland and Benton City.

For more information, contact Bruce, the CK SVdP President, at (509) 627-7295 or email him at bruce@svdpck.org.

Sunday Reflection

My Peace I Give to You

When John has a vision of heavenly Jerusalem, he sees walls.

"A massive, high wall," to be more precise. In the modern lexicon, walls have a negative connotation; we use them as metaphors for all that is exclusionary and rigid. But throughout much of history, walls have meant something very different. In the ancient world, walls meant safety.

Walls meant peace.

"My peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you," Jesus tells his disciples in today's Gospel. "Not as the world gives do I give it to you."

So what's the difference between the peace we know in the world, and the peace we know in Christ?

Well, I would argue that the difference is that the peace we know in Christ exists. We know no real peace in this world. Sometimes, we witness a sort of mirage of peace — something like it, but just a little off, and always on the horizon, never within reach.

Peace, to me, means rest. It means quiet. It means the absence of confrontation, of conflict, of anxiety. But I can't actually experience any of that in this life, not in a substantial way. I can rest — but I never really feel rested. I can retreat to a room by myself to have silence, but someone always knocks on the door, and even if they don't, my thoughts get pretty loud.

And boy oh boy, are those thoughts full of confrontation. Full of anxiety, full of conflict. Wherever I go to find peace, the world finds me and banishes it.

I think of the walls of heavenly Jerusalem, so high and so sturdy, guarded so scrupulously by God's strongest angels. These walls are not barriers. They are shields. They are arms, encircling us, gathering us in.

In Christ alone can we find peace in this world.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life are designed for lay persons with busy and varied lives. The Exercises are flexible; each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. Participants learn many types of prayer including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation and meditation. The Spiritual Exercises change people; they are powerful. By delving deeper into self through prayer, the pray-er discovers God within, in a new, deeper way. People of all faiths are welcome.

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) begin again in September. We invite you to join us. For an application or to learn more about SEEL please visit <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples 'Peace I leave with you, my peace I give you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you.'

In Chapter 4 of the Rule, St. Benedict tells his monks that their way of acting should be different from the world's way. Also, in the Prologue to the Rule, he quotes Psalm 34 in encouraging those who desire true and eternal life: 'let peace be your quest and aim.' It is in treating everyone we meet as we would treat Christ that we follow the quest.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Join the Church in praying the following intercessions from the Easter Season:

Grant that today we may put aside all friction and jealousy, and show greater concern for the needs of others. Send into our hearts the spirit of the Gospel, that we may walk in the way of your commandments, today and forever.

Eternal shepherd, look on your flock as it rises from sleep, feed us with the word of life and the bread from heaven.

Be our great joy that no one can take from us, so that we may reject sin with its sadness, and reach out to eternal life.
