A Pentecost Prayer

Father of light, from whom every good gift comes, send your Spirit into our lives
with the power of a mighty wind, and by the flame of your wisdom
open the horizons of our minds.

Loosen our tongues to sing your praise
in words beyond the power of speech, for without your Spirit
we could never raise our voices in words of peace or announce the truth that Jesus is Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
God, forever and ever.
Amen!

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Today as we celebrate Pentecost, the Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God's presence to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives.

Your donation to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will help the poor believe in the mystery of God's love for them.

For more information, contact Bruce, the CK SVdP President, at (509) 627-7295 or email him at bruce@svdpck.org.

Sunday Reflection

Leaving the Room

I was a full-grown adult before I realized that Pentecost is known as "the birthday of the Church," and it only resonated with me because someone showed up to a church function with cake and candles. Leave it to buttercream frosting to drive home a theological reality I had been missing for 25 years.

I knew what Pentecost was, of course. It simply went over my head that, despite all the incredible, world-changing things that had come before the moment of Pentecost, prior to this day, the Apostles were just a group of guys in a room. It wasn't until Pentecost that they became the Church.

So what makes the Church...well, the Church, capital C? What makes it more than just a group of guys in a room?

It's true, they were a very special group of guys. They had the Truth — capital T. They had borne witness to Christ's miracles, to his life and to his passion and death.

But they were still in that room.

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they received graces and gifts that made them fit to carry out the Great Commission. The Truth wasn't enough, even with a capital T. They needed the Spirit — capital S — and more than that, they needed to receive it with the courage and faith necessary to do what needed to be done.

To get up and leave the room.

Because what good is any of it unless they leave the room? What does it matter, the tongues of fire and the miraculous bilingualism and, frankly, the coming of the Spirit, if no one ever hears about it?

The mission is what made them the Church. It's what makes us the Church. Without it, we're just a bunch of guys in a room.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life are designed for lay persons with busy and varied lives. The Exercises are flexible; each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. Participants learn many types of prayer including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation and meditation. The Spiritual Exercises change people; they are powerful. By delving deeper into self through prayer, the pray-er discovers God within, in a new, deeper way. People of all faiths are welcome.

This year, the Spiritual Exercises will begin again in September. This past season, SEEL reached the limit of our capacity for applicants. So, if you'd like to join the Spiritual Exercises this coming season, we urge you to apply early. The deadline for applying is July 14. If you have any questions or want more information, please visit our website at <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

This Monday, we honor Mary, Mother of the Church. In the day's reading from Acts, we read that the apostles, along with Mary, were gathered in the upper room after the Ascension, and that they 'devoted themselves with one accord to prayer.' While they awaited the coming of the Holy Spirit, St. Benedict encourages us to await the return of Christ by devoting ourselves to prayer.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Join the Church in celebrating Pentecost as we pray the Evening I and II Gospel Antiphons:

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of all believers and set them on fire with your love. Though they spoke many different languages, you united the nations in professing the same faith, alleluia.

Today we celebrate the feast of Pentecost, alleluia; on this day the Holy Spirit appeared before the apostles in tongues of fire and gave them his spiritual gifts. He sent them out to preach to the whole world, and to proclaim that all who believe and are baptized shall be saved, alleluia.

Reflect on the following portion of the Preface for Pentecost Sunday:

For, bringing your Paschal Mystery to completion, you bestowed the Holy Spirit today on those you made your adopted children by uniting them to your Only Begotten Son. This same Spirit, as the Church came to birth, opened to all peoples the knowledge of God and brought together the many languages of the earth in profession of the one faith

A Note from the Serra Club

"Jesus said to His disciples 'Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached in His name to all the nations... You are witnesses of these things...' " (from Luke 24: 46-53)

Do you hear Jesus's call to be a witness to salvation and forgiveness of sins as a priest, permanent deacon, brother, or sister?

If you are considering a religious vocation, contact Father Lalo Chavez at Christ the King for the Yakima Diocese or Father Kyle Ratuiste at the Diocesan Office in Spokane for help with your discernment.
