Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life are designed for lay persons with busy and varied lives. The Exercises are flexible; each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. Participants learn many types of prayer including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation and meditation. The Spiritual Exercises change people; they are powerful. By delving deeper into self through prayer, the pray-er discovers God within, in a new, deeper way. People of all faiths are welcome.

This year, the Spiritual Exercises will begin again in September. This past season, SEEL reached the limit of our capacity for applicants. So, if you'd like to join the Spiritual Exercises this coming season, we urge you to apply early. The deadline for applying is July 14. If you have any questions or want more information, please visit our website at <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

Today we celebrate Father's Day. The second sentence of the Rule of St. Benedict is 'This is advice from a father who loves you; welcome it, and faithfully put it into practice.' Tender words!

Our small group meetings for June and July have been combined into one date: Thursday, July 10. You're welcome to join us at noon in the parish library as we celebrate the vigil of the Feast of St. Benedict!

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Join the Church in celebrating Trinity Sunday as we pray the Evening II Gospel Antiphon and the Prayer invoked at the beginning of Mass and again at the end of the Divine Offices:

Antiphon: With our whole heart and voice we acclaim you, O God; we offer you our praise and worship, unbegotten Father, only-begotten Son, Holy Spirit, constant friend and guide; most holy and undivided Trinity, to you be glory for ever.

Prayer: Father, you sent your Word to bring us truth and your Spirit to make us holy. Through them we come to know the mystery of your life. Help us to worship you, one God in three Persons, by proclaiming and living our faith in you. Grant this through Jesus Christ your Son...
