From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us to "strive to enter through the narrow gate." Our call to be disciples and to follow Jesus demands that we learn to live for the sake of others. Have you given of your talents and time on mission trips as a high school or college student? Do you currently volunteer with local food banks or other organizations that help the poor in our communities? These activities are proof that you are learning to live for the sake of others.

We invite you to come and see how St. Vincent de Paul's spirituality and friendship lead to face to face encounters with our neighbors in need.

Our conference is in great need of more members who could help with the home visits we make with the neighbors that call our helpline. Our neighbors need you, and so does the SVdP Conference of Christ the King Church.

For more information, contact Bruce, the CK SVdP President, at (509) 627-7295 or bruce@svdpck.org.

Benedictine Spirituality:

Today's epistle contains 'quoted' material; the source is Proverbs 3: 11-12. In the very first lines of the Prologue to his Rule, St. Benedict also indirectly quotes thoughts from Proverbs: 'advice from a father who loves you.' The theme here is the parent-child relationship. In a healthy one, a loving parent communicates expectations that serve the common good; a loving child understands the intention and responds effectively. In the monastic world, St. Benedict proscribes 'nothing harsh, nothing burdensome.' It's a journey in maturity for both parties.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Excerpts from Nine Themes in Carmelite Spirituality, Fr. Patrick McMahon, O. Carm., www.ocarm.org

Carmel is in the classic Catholic Tradition

Our past defines and shapes our present. We cannot understand our present unless we go back to our past. ...We Catholics must not lose the rich treasure we have in our theological tradition, a tradition dating not to the 1950s or even to the early part of the last century, but a tradition that dates back almost twenty centuries.

One practical introduction to the Fathers of the Church and the Doctors of the Church, in this treasury of Christian literature, is in the Divine Office, which contains many fine sections of this classical Catholic tradition in the daily Office of Readings. Our faith will be much richer and deeper as we become more familiar with the thoughts of the men and women who were part of the great chain of Christians who received the faith from the apostles and handed it on to us..

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.
