From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

Today's Gospel reminds us of God's great love for each of us, a love so great that He sent His Son not to condemn the world, but to save it, so that we might have eternal life.

Recently, our visiting members met with a widowed mother of two teenagers. She was looking for work, but behind on her power bill. Your donation kept the lights on for this family. The visiting Vincentians were also able to provide information on additional resources for job searching and short-term utility assistance.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul...we want to help!

Do you sometimes feel that you should be doing more to grow in your spiritual life? If so, you may be hearing the call to Vincentian fellowship. The Christ the King Conference provides an excellent organization in which you can grow spiritually as well as using your talents to address some physical and spiritual needs of others in our community. For more information, contact Bruce, the CK SVdP President, at (509) 627-7295 or bruce@svdpck.org.

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) begin in September. If you want more information please visit our website at <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

This week the church remembers St. Hildegard of Bingen, a 12th century German Benedictine abbess, writer, composer, philosopher, poet, Christian mystic, and polymath. She is considered a patron saint of musicians and writers. A prayer attributed to her:

"Holy Life-Giver, Doctor of the desperate, Healer of everyone broken past hope, Medicine for all wounds, Fire of love, fragrant Strength, sparkling Fountain, Protector!

In You we see how God goes looking for those who are lost and reconciles those who are at odds with God. We praise You. Light-giver, Sound of joy, Wonder of being alive, Hope of every person: You are our strongest Good. Alleluia!"

Our small group meets on the third Thursday of the month, this time Sept. 17, at noon in the parish library. We open and close with prayer, and in between read the Rule of St. Benedict and discuss. Our meetings last about an hour. Please join us!

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Excerpts from Nine Themes in Carmelite Spirituality, Fr. Patrick McMahon, O. Carm., www.ocarm.org

Carmel is Elijah

That means we look to the prophet Elijah, the great prophet who lived on Mt. Carmel eight centuries before Jesus, and we find great inspiration in him. Carmelites from the very beginning of the Order have looked to Elijah for inspiration. They saw in the prophet everything that they wanted to be. He was a man of deep contemplation, one who sought solitude in the wadi Carith or in the cave at Mount Horeb. All Carmelites need to know the Elijah stories that we find at the end of the First Book of Kings, and in the beginning of the Second Book of Kings in the Bible.

We see in these stories that Elijah was a restless man. He was filled with energy for God like we want to be, and he was anxious to spend that energy on God's kingdom. But he was always searching to know what God asked of him. He is the model, along with Mary, for each of us Carmelites. Elijah was a fearless prophet who stood strong and tall against the injustice of his day. He defended the farmer and the peasant against the mighty kings and lords. And that is why the Order of Carmel today has stood with the Church in making the preferential option for the poor. Carmel stands for nothing more than what the popes have stood for in their brilliant encyclical letters when they call for rights of the poor to be protected.

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

Tri-Cities Prep News

Tri-Cities Prep is the only Catholic high school in the greater Tri-Cities area. For more information about our school, please visit tcprep.org, and follow us on Facebook and Instagram. We are located at 9612 St. Thomas Drive, Pasco. We can be reached at 509-546-2465 or info@tcprep.org. Upcoming events:

September 17 - Join us for Mass of the Holy Spirit at 6:30 p.m. in the St. Thomas Aquinas Chapel.

September 29 - Come celebrate the dedication of the St. Michael Plaza. Bishop Thomas A. Daly will bless this beautiful new meditation/prayer space at 8:30 a.m.

In and Around the Diocese

The fall 40 Days For Life prayer vigil, held near the Planned Parenthood facility in Kennewick, is Sept. 24 – Nov. 2. For more information, contact Christie at 509-980-1736 or Winnie Zeamer at 509-943-9991, or email kennewick40daysforlife@yahoo.com.

San Lorenzo Ruiz Mass: Saturday Sept. 27, 11 a.m. at the Parish of the Holy Spirit in Kennewick. Potluck to follow.

A Note from the Serra Club

In the Gospel, Jesus tells Nicodemus that "God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that he who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life." (John 3:16)

This is the essence of the Good News that everyone needs to hear. Will you spread Jesus's message to all as a priest, permanent deacon, brother, or sister?

If you are considering a religious vocation, contact Father Lalo Chavez at Christ the King for the Yakima Diocese or Father Kyle Ratuiste at the Diocesan Office in Spokane for help with your discernment.
