QCD distribution: Did you know that if you are age 70½ or older, you can make tax-free donations from your IRA to Christ the King parish?

The tool for such a donation is called a QCD (Qualified Contribution Distribution). A QCD counts toward the required amount you are to withdraw each year from your IRA.

It is always a good time to think about using this QCD option for tax planning. Contact your IRA trustee or broker to find out how easy it is to do a tax-free donation to Christ the King.

Sharing Tree!

Thank You!!

It was another successful year for Food Baskets and Sharing Tree gift cards – ALL because of you. Many thanks to

- The school and parish families who donated food and gift cards
- The students and faculty who coordinated and packed food boxes
- Parishioners who GENEROUSLY donated gift cards in person or online
- Families who picked up and delivered boxes and cards to needy families.

You provided food and gifts to 125 families served by the St. Vincent de Paul Society and their 244 children. You also provided gift cards to 63 children living in Elijah Family Homes, plus foster kids, seniors and others in need served by Catholic Charities.

Blessings to you for sharing with your neighbors!

From our St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel, we hear that Jesus will be named Emmanuel, which means "God is with us." The mystery of the birth of Jesus is supremely a mystery of love. May each Christmas find us more and more like him: more humble, more holy, more happy and more full of God.

Recently our members met a gentleman that is truly 'on fire' with his personal ministry to tirelessly collect food every day from multiple sources to help our local needy and hungry neighbors. This neighbor spends a significant portion of his monthly disability benefit on gasoline for picking up and delivering donated food to various outreach facilities and needy individuals. Unplanned household expenses left him short this month and unable to fill up his delivery vehicle. Our members were able to provide him with a gasoline voucher to continue his generous service to the community. This neighbor, a humble, holy and happy man, has chosen to love as Jesus calls each of us to do.

Your financial gifts provide hope for each neighbor we visit and in this encounter that hope was multiplied for many others in need. Your donations are always needed. Please consider making a year-end St. Vincent de Paul donation to provide hope to those who are poor and suffering to find Emmanuel, so they may come to know that "God is with us."

It's Christmas break at Christ the King Catholic School! Students and staff alike are ready for some time off to spend with those they love. Please pray for the safety and health of all our students and their families during this vacation time. In this short 4th week of Advent we pray that you feel especially close to Mother Mary and her Son!

We had three boys basketball teams this year, and they competed very well against our neighboring schools. Thank you to all our coaches for their gift of time to the school and to our Athletic Director, Mr Noren. Go Crusaders!

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the canned food drive. Those donations went straight to families in our own Tri Cities community. Well done to our 8th graders coordinating this service project!

Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality:

For more information about the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL), please visit our website at <https://seeltc.com> or contact us at info@seeltc.com.

Benedictine Spirituality:

The Rule of St. Benedict never mentions Advent or Christmas, but that doesn't mean Benedictines don't!

You may know about the 'O Antiphons' that are prayed, from Dec. 17 to Dec. 24 with the Cantic of Mary in Evening Prayer of the Divine Office. There are also specific antiphons for the Cantic of Zechariah prayed during Morning prayer.

Here are several from a Benedictine breviary published by St. John's Abbey in Minnesota:

- Dec. 21: There is no need to be afraid; in five days our Lord will come to us. Alleluia.
- Dec. 23: All that God promised to the Virgin through the message of the angel has been accomplished. Alleluia.
- Dec. 24: This day you will know that the Lord is coming, and tomorrow you will see his glory. Alleluia.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 509-430-1962. Merry Christmas!!

Carmelite Corner

Ponder the Psalter Antiphons for Evening Prayer I of the 4th Sunday of Advent:

- He comes, the desire of all human hearts; his dwelling place shall be resplendent with glory, alleluia.
- Come, Lord, do not delay; free your people from their sinfulness.
- The fullness of time has come upon us at last; God sends his Son into the world.

Reflect on the following portion of Preface II of Advent which is prayed at the beginning of the Eucharistic Prayer:

For all the oracles of the prophets foretold him,
the Virgin Mother longed for him with love beyond all telling,
John the Baptist sang of his coming and proclaimed his presence when he came.
It is by his gift that already we rejoice
at the mystery of his Nativity, so that he may find us watchful in prayer and exultant in his praise.
